HOLLINS COLLEGE, VIRGINIA

1976 - 1977

Hollins occupies a patch of land in the Shenandoah Valley midway between New York and Atlanta. People live on the land; their business is learning.

The land is fertile. Elms, dogwood, and pine grow there. You may too - and whether or not you do, is your responsibility.

On the cover: An ADA skit on Tinker Day

We'll be looking for you to arrive on Tuesday, September 7th before 4:00 p.m. However you plan to arrive - plane, train, bus, or car - someone will be on hand to meet you.

Your first weeks on campus may bring unaccustomed and unexpected experiences. You will probably be lost a few times, both in the personal recesses of your own soul and in the library, Dana and Moody Center. You will encounter confusion about your classes and registration procedures. You will feel alone a few times and possibly homesick a few times. Yet it is undeniably the beginning of a great adventure! Relax, hang loose, and have a good summer.

"Virginia, with the meadows that are colleges. Even the mountains are gracious."

James Dickey, JERICHO

HOUSING

Hollins is a residential college with about 70 commuters. Students are housed in five dorms, four houses, and an apartment complex across the road. As a first year student, your room and roommate will be assigned and you will know your roommate's name after you arrive on campus in September.

All rooms are furnished with beds, mattresses (36 X 72), mattress covers, pillows, dressers, mirrors, desks, desk chairs, and lock boxes or drawers. Some rooms have draperies provided; others have venetian blinds. All dormitories have full length mirrors, cleaning equipment, kitchenettes, lounges, TV rooms, and study areas.

All room care, including bed making, sweeping, dusting, and general housekeeping is your responsibility. Brooms, dust mops, dust pans, and vacuum cleaners are available. Once a week you may get clean sheets and a pillowcase (pastels available) from the College Laundromat if you opt for the Linen Service, otherwise bring your own bed linen and lots of quarters for the washers and dryers. You are expected to furnish your own blankets, towels, and wash cloths.

The College does not assume responsibility for loss of personal property due to theft, fire, wind, or other catastrophes, and you are advised to maintain insurance for your personal possessions.

Because of fire danger and electrical capacity, irons, percolators, hot plates and sun-lamps may not be used in student rooms. Smoking is permitted, but never on beds, please, and only with regulation ashtrays purchased in the Bookstore.

Due to health considerations and respect for all residents, no pets, other than fish or turtles, may be kept in college housing.

"Virginia is rolling fields and farms through the Shenandoah Valley. The Blue Ridge Mountains. Jamestown. Yorktown. Shakespeare's England at the new King's Dominion. Castle Hill, where mint juleps saved Jefferson from the British. Natural Bridge and Natural Tunnel. Patrick Henry's Scotchtown. All together in one great state, for more fun, more vacation-more America- to the mile. Because whatever you love, it's here."

Hollins is not the ideal community, Happy Valley, or the panacea for all the problems you have known.

Your happiness here will depend on your motivation, your reasons for coming, your expectations, your potential for autonomy, your awareness of yourself, your tolerance for freedom and ambiguity, and your appreciation for the thoughts and feelings of others.
