Evans are Victorious in the Annual Hockey Battle With a Score of 1 to 0

The Even team, led by its captain, Audrey Lumpkin, scored another triumph in hockey this year by defeating the Odds, 1 to 0, on Wednesday, November 27th. This makes the fifth victory for the Evans while the Odds have won the cup three times. In 1927 the game was held on the north side of the Gym and followed behind the team as it came in on a roadster decorated in the red and white so dear to Evans. The cheer leader, Eugenia Bridges, led the procession on a bicycle. Unfortunately, the field was too soft for the parade to conform to the usual tradition of rushing the goal, but sufficient noise was made on the “little field.” The Odds appeared last in their pony cart of orange and black. Their rooters were gathered on the north side of the field and heralded the approach of Captain Patch and her team with yells and songs.

The game was called at 3:15 and from that moment to the end of the game not a single spectator or player drew a free breath. One goal was made in the first half by the Evans but a foul had been made in the play and the goal was not counted. The Odds took courage from this and rushed the ball down to the Even goal to press Sorg into service. A long kick saved the goal. The excellent defense of the game was necessarily maintained to the end of the game not a single goal was not scored.

Neither side scored in the first half and it was not until about the middle of the second half that a goal was made by Kay Schmidt, center forward on the Even team. Although the game was hard fought throughout and excellent plays were made it was necessarily slowed up by the poor condition of the field. As a result of the rain and snow one alley was extremely slippery and the territory within the striking circle had to be filled in with cinders in order for the game to be played. This interfered with the play of both backs and forwards. The line-up of the game was as follows:

Even—Wilson, E., L. W.; Keesler, E., L. I.; Schmidt, K., C.; Bowen, E., R. I.; Johns, R. W.; Lumpkin, Captain, L. H.; Quares, D., C. H.; Creech, M., R. H.; Blount, L. B.; Stirling, R. B.; Sorg, G.

Odds—Lineberger, F., L. W.; Chapman, T., L. I.; Forman, B., C.; Trentham, B., R. I.; Bray, E., R. W.; Smith, P., L. H.; Patch, Captain, C. H.; Rutherford, S., R. H.; Locke, L. B.; Speiden, M., R. B.; McIntosh, G.

Substitutions: Evens—Webb for Keesler.

Guard: Evens—Schmidt, K., C.

Umpire: Miss Helen Marbut (Harrisonburg), assisted by Miss Rath and Miss Chevraux.

Eleanor Wilson to Attend Meeting of the N. S. F. A.

Siddy Wilson will represent Hollins at the fifth annual Congress of the National Student Federation which will meet at Stanford University, Palo Alto, California, January 1, 2, 3 and 4, 1930. The National Student Federation is the only national organization of college students of its kind in the United States, and it offers the opportunity of getting nation-wide experience and knowledge on such subjects as honor system, publication, athletics, curriculum, fraternities and other prevalent campus problems. This will be the second time that Hollins has been represented at the annual meeting of the N. S. F. A. and from the former meeting the representative brought back a message that was of much inspiration.
It is not rather ridiculous that we have to speak of this subject at all—the fact that our nauseous appetites crave an expensive, or empty, or inexpensive breakfast. We cannot take advantage of the convenient refreshments at the corner cream, and we have to go to the nearest Nell's Tea Room has provided. At nine o'clock one could go to the library, and in the absence of any further excuse, we have to find something to eat. Nor is this all. In the absence of any further study. It is true that we could buy some things, but they would be at the corner cream, and sandwiches will not keep indefinitely and, after all, are too much for us. This helps so many why it is not allowed? Let us have more discussion on the subject in the next issue.

Every since Hollins has been a school, chapel has been compulsory. Every night every girl is required to be present if she is in the campus unless she is ill the infirmary. This plan was a good one so long as the schools were being progressive and was supposed to form the character of its students and to make habits which were to last a life-time. Now, however, the students have grown older and are not going to make anyone think it was a bad idea. Every single day or a large charge is put to religious activities unless she has been called to help him clear the road. Although it is at Hollins, dis­

STUDENT STAFF

Published faithfully during the college year by a staff composed of students.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF: ANGIE E. TURNER
ASSOCIATE EDITOR: SARAH WELCH
BUSINESS MANAGER: ELIZABETH RICE

Reporters

ELIZABETH ADLIN, Margaret Secord
ELIZABETH HUSTON, Gertrude Sperl
FRANCES HUNTER, Malvina Tabb
ELIZABETH McCONNELL, Virginia Webb

Hollins Student Life reserves the right to withhold publication any article which it deems necessary; also it does not assume the responsibility for the opinions expressed by contributors of signed articles.

Again, in what hope to be the final issue of our stand-up campaign, the only contributions for interest in the subject. The introductory part is the more serious and important. To the new girls, which is a great deal of nonsense and is the subject. As we read the following.

We all know about the wonderful offer of the home of the city. Although it has been made for Hollins, it is unimportant in the face of what we must be-

Dr. Palmer, Frances Dudd, and I view, November 22d, in Marion, North

CAMPBELL, editor in chief, D. F. The Foul

The endowment means life to Hollins and

“Each one in this college woman’s should be among the fore­

This name, even while at Hollins, dis­

KNOTTED LONE TREE

I look forward.

To the new girls, which is a great deal of nonsense and is the subject. As we read the following.

We all know about the wonderful offer of the home of the city. Although it has been made for Hollins, it is unimportant in the face of what we must be-

Dr. Palmer, Frances Dudd, and I view, November 22d, in Marion, North

CAMPBELL, editor in chief, D. F. The Foul

The endowment means life to Hollins and

“Each one in this college woman’s should be among the fore­

This name, even while at Hollins, dis­

KNOTTED LONE TREE

I look forward.

To the new girls, which is a great deal of nonsense and is the subject. As we read the following.

We all know about the wonderful offer of the home of the city. Although it has been made for Hollins, it is unimportant in the face of what we must be-
Hollins girls attending the Thanksgiving dances at Washington and Lee were: Eleanor Bomar, Elizabeth Conway, Dorothy Doane, Virginia Fitz-Gerald, Helen Fleenor, Jeanette Gilmer, Charlotte Hampton, Elizabeth Hutchison, Ruth Johnson, Helen Kabler, Nancy Kamper, Alva Kellogg, Dr. Dorothy Keeler, Louise Lincoln, Betty Milton, Louise Moore, Shirley Newbould, Elizabeth Platt, Elizabeth Rice, Mary Rushin, Hazel Ryan, Bertha Speiden, Mildred Thompson, Eleanor Wilson, Catherine Witchen and Harriett Wynne.

Among the girls at the dances at Virginia Military Institute last week were the following: Louise Bowes, Gene Bush, Anne Harlan, Louise Harrison, Anne Hyatt, Sunie Johns, Lorraine McGlone, Mary Elizabeth Perry, Betty Robinson, Katherine Spratley, Betty Steel, Mary Elizabeth, Sarah Tilton, Mary Watkins and Mary Taylor Withers.

Thanksgiving dances at Virginia Polytechnic Institute were attended by Eleanor Bowen, Margarette Harwell, Rosalie Harper, Margarett Hufford, Elizabeth McCleary, Elizabeth Morris, Ella Northinrgton, Katherine Rhinehart, Angie Tilton, Ethel Weaver, Virginia Bowman and Gertrude Wiles.

Anne Wynne Fleming, Louise Middleton and Co. to the Robinsons went to a dance at Fishburn Military Academy last Friday.

Rebecca Atkinson and Margaret Nabor spent last Sunday in Lynchburg.

Miss Margaret Sorg, of Richmond, a recent visitor at Hollins, was accompanied home last week by her sister, Dorothy, and Esther Shoup.

Rosemary Virden and Elizabeth Montjoie recently visited Eleanor Babo at Randolph-Macon.

Frances Lineberger and Laura Hoke attended the dances at Chapel Hill last week.

Leah Jones, Janet Hollister, Ruth Newby, Margaret White, Claire Whitfield, McClare Mooker, Jane Williams and Mary White went to the Virginia-Carolina game on Thanksgiving Day.

Helen Weaver spent last week-end as the guest of the Kirk Lunsfords, in Roanoke.

Elizabeth Houston spent the week-end of November 30th at her home in Hampton, Virginia.

Among those from Hollins who spent Thanksgiving in Roanoke were Shy Adams, Homozelle Darden, Virginia Messmore, Louise Linder and Mal Tabb.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schmidt, of Baltimore, visited Kay and Ernestine last week-end.

Mrs. W. B. Walters, from Cleveland, Ohio, spent Thanksgiving with Mildred.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hooper, of Newport News, Virginia, visited Rosalee during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Lipscomb and daughter, Florence, South Carolina, were June's guests for Thanksgiving.

Marjorie Sparks had as her guests last week-end her mother and Margaret Hill, of Richmond, Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Young of Charleston, West Virginia, visited Elizabeth, Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Phillips, of Richmond, Virginia, were Helen's guests for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Phillips and Miss Helen Phillips, of Montclair, New Jersey, spent Thanksgiving with Anna.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lester, of West Point, Georgia, and Marie Lanier visited Lucy, Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Abbot, of Norfolk, Virginia, spent Thanksgiving with Elizabeth.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hyatt, of Richlands, Virginia, were Anne's guests last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Huyett, of Charles Town, West Virginia, visited Dorothy, Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Flathaus, of Nashua, New Hampshire, spent last week-end with Dedo.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Alexander, of Charleston, West Virginia, spent Thanksgiving with Leona.

Mary Coleman Hankins had as her guests last week-end her mother and brother and Bertha Decrdci, of Richmond, Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Middleton, of Monro, North Carolina, visited Louise, Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Jones, of Richmond, Virginia, were Margaret Carter's guests for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Taylor, of Rutherford, New Jersey, visited Betty last week-end.

Mrs. H. B. Forman, Jr., of Haverford, Pennsylvania, visited Betty last week-end.

Mr. H. Lumpkin, of New York, spent Thanksgiving with Audrey.

Emily Saunders had as her guest Thanksgiving Grace Taylor, from Fredericksburg.

Erna Bishop, Class of '28, was at Hollins recently.

Miss Helen Henritze, of Welch, West Virginia, visited Frances Henritze last week-end.

Sallie Barret, '28, was Dot Quarters' guest for the Odd-Even hockey game.

Juliana Lou, '28, spent last week-end with Frances Henritze.

Margaret Bowles, '29, visited Elizabeth Fentens, Thanksgiving.

Nancy Lea, '29, spent Thanksgiving with Ola Fowlkes.

Bet Pettigrew, '29, visited Frances Lineberger, Thanksgiving.

Evelyn Pullim, '28, was Rachel Greer's guest, Thanksgiving.

Anne Lou Dodd visited Frances last week-end.

Dorothy Etheridge, of Portsmouth, Virginia, was Lida's guest last week-end.

Dorothy Campbell, of Doswell, Virginia, visited Katherine, Thanksgiving.

Winifred Goodman, of Newport News, Virginia, was guest of her sister, Eloise, for Thanksgiving.

Catherine Bean, of Randolph-Macon, spent Thanksgiving with Dorothy Carr.

Evelyn White, of Severn, North Carolina, visited Katherine Wilson last week-end.

Patty Godsey had as guest, Thanksgiving Mary Lucile Newman, from Bristol, Virginia.

Alice Backus, of Sullins, spent last week-end with Jane da Ryan Ken.

Frances Dawson, of Norfolk, Virginia, visited Elizabeth, recently.

Sarah Doane and Virginia Lee Tyle, of Norfolk, Virginia, were guests of Harriett Carr, Thanksgiving.

Fanny Collett, of Gloucester, Virginia, spent Thanksgiving with Betty Milton.

Anne Harrison, of Martinsburg, West Virginia, was Ellie Weaver's guest for Thanksgiving.

Miss Catherine Wood, '25, of Philadelphia, visited Miss Rachel Wilson recently.

Frances Cody of Point Pleasant, West Virginia, spent Thanksgiving with Margaret Adkins.

Sanders Foshbe, of Wofford College, Spartanburg, South Carolina, visited his sister, Elizabeth, last week-end.

Dorothy Thomkinson, from Randolph-Macon, is the guest of Mary Lee Brown.

Willemena Heyer is visiting friends in Martinsville, Virginia.

Elizabeth MeWhorter, from Randolph-Macon, is visiting Jane Brown.

Belle Lovelace, of South Boston, Virginia, is visiting Frances Briggs.

Annual Hockey Banquet Proves Delightful Affair

The banquet held every year in honor of the members and substitutes of the Odd and Even game took place at six o'clock, Thanksgiving night, in the dining room. The tables at which the harvested and cooked foods were seated were placed in the center of the dining room and surrounded a miniature hockey field, upon which the players—Odd in red and Even in blue—were seated at one end, and where they put on their skates. On one side of the field was the pony cart of the Odd team, on the other the automobile of the Even team.

The decorations carried out the telegraph motif. The place cards were telegrams, each containing two lines of an Odd or Even song. The posts supporting the dome of the dining room served as telegraph poles, the wires being orange and black and red and white streamers. At each place were small pennants and penn-wipers—the Odd receiving black cats tied with orange ribbon and the Even red tiger tied with white.

At the speakers' table were Mr. Turner, Hollins' own representative, Captain of the Odd, Audrey Lumpkin, Captain of the Even, Birdie Moore, President of the Athletic Association, Dorothy Quarles, President of the Monogram Club, Mary Belle Deaton, Odd Cheer Leader, Eugenia Bridges, Even Cheer Leader and Miss Rath. Toasts were made to the girls by the Boys' Debate and to the Odds by Audrey Lumpkin. Mr. Turner read the telegrams from the old Hollins girls to the Odd and Even teams and some of the results of the Thanksgiving football games. Virginia Webb gave a brief review of the fall sports.

Awards to the following girls were then presented by Dorothy Quarles: Stars to Elizabeth Blount, Eleanor Bowen, Sunie Johns, Dorothy Quarles, Virginia Webb and Eleanor Wilson, of the Class of 1930; Eleanor Bray, Nancy McGlone, Charlotte Patch, Marion Speiden and Betty Trenbath, of the Class of 1931, and Janet Stirling, of the Class of 1932. Monograms to Preston Smith, of the Class of 1931, and Janet Stirling, of the Class of 1932, the first Sophomore to achieve this honor. Nominals to Esther Bonnet and Audrey Lumpkin, of the Class of 1930; Virginia Jones, Frances Lineberger, Suzanne Rutherford and Sarah Welch, of the Class of 1931; Mary Lee Brown; Mary Creech, Mary Coleman Hankins, Ethel Keesler and Katherine Schmidt, of the Class of 1932.

The trophy cup was presented to the Even by Mr. Turner after which Miss Rath announced the following as members of the varsity hockey team: Right wing, Margaret Brown; right inner, Eleanor Bowen; center, Kay Schmidt; left inner, Eleanor Bray; right wing, Eleanor Wilson; right half, Kay Locke; center half, Charlotte Patch; left half, Audrey Lumpkin; right full, Janet Stirling; left full, Marion Speiden; goal, Dorothy Sorg.

COTILLION

KELLER—Dec. 7, 7:00 p.m.
FIVE-PIECE ORCHESTRA

Sponsored by Endowment Committee

Admission 75c Everybody Come

Tickets on Sale Dec. 5th and 6th in Keller