To the Class of 1945 and to Other New Students

It is with a feeling of warm pleasure that I greet the new students as they enter for this the last year of the first century of Hollins history. We have been thinking of your coming for many months, and have felt already that as a group and as individuals, too, the Class of 1945 would bring, as they entered our campus, an appreciation of Hollins values and the desire to enrich those values by their life among us.

We welcome you as you join our group of faculty and students in the busy, happy life of Hollins.

Bessie C. Randolph, President.
GREETINGS

To the new students at Hollins we extend a cordial welcome. We are genuinely happy to have you here and are looking forward to sharing with you the pleasures and opportunities of your college years.

In each one of you we take a warm personal interest. You have been carefully selected and your records show that you hold the promise of doing good college work. Hollins can and is prepared to help you succeed. Her faculty and her courses should stimulate your intellectual enthusiasm. She offers you opportunity for self-expression and for developing your interests in many ways. But much of your success and happiness will come from your own efforts. What you accomplish depends on your willingness to use your time, your thought, your imagination, your energy on the tasks that are before you.

Hollins is counting on each of you to use your abilities to make life here better for yourself and your college, and to give you the foundation for good living in the years that lie ahead.

MARY PHLEGAR SMITH, Dean.
STUDENT GOVERNMENT
ASSOCIATION
FOREWORD

The Student Government Association of Hollins College is composed of all students, and is founded upon the principles of honor and self-reliance. It purposes to represent and to further the best interest of the student body, to secure cooperation between the different organizations, and to promote responsibility, self-control, and loyalty among the students.

With such ideals the fundamental principle to be recognized is that of individual responsibility, not only for one's self but for the entire group. This necessitates a clear and comprehensive understanding of the ideals of a student group thus organized. It implies a recognition of the spirit as well as the letter of our laws, and a thoughtful and sympathetic consideration of all phases of student life. From this will follow an active cooperation and a sincere interest in upholding the history, ideals and spirit of our college.

THE HONOR PLEDGE

Each student, upon her entrance at Hollins, becomes a member of the Student Government Association. As a member she shall sign the following pledge:

I, ____________________________________________,
upon my honor, do hereby pledge myself to honesty in academic work and in student relations, and also to abide by the regulations of the Student Government Association, in spirit as well as in fact. I further promise to help any other person in the Association by calling to her attention any misconduct on her part or reporting her action to those in authority in the Association.

I understand that a plea of ignorance will not excuse my failure to keep this pledge.

As a member of the Student Government Association, every girl shares its obligations and responsibilities as well as its privileges and therefore must be willing to subordinate her own standards to those of the community as embodied in its regulations. She must accept responsibility for her own conduct and must also cooperate in holding others to the standards of Hollins and in reminding them of their obligations in case of non-conformity.

c. No student is expected to visit at other tables in the dining room except on Saturday, Sunday and on holidays.

c. Table assignments will be distributed in students' rooms every four weeks.

f. Dormitory and dining room regulations are suspended during the spring holidays; students staying at the College are under all other rules of the Student Government Association.

IV. GUESTS

a. As the College has limited accommodations for guests, it is necessary for parents to engage rooms at the tea houses or in Roanoke.
b. Students entertaining guests overnight or for a meal or meals must register each guest on arrival in the Social Office, also her own name as hostess, and must indicate the extent of the visit and the meals to be taken. Should changes be made after registration the necessary adjustments will be made at the time of settlement in the business office. 1. A charge will be made of 50 cents per night, and meals as follows: Breakfast, 25 cents; lunch, 35 cents; dinner, 50 cents. Accounts for lodging and for meals should be settled in the business office promptly.

Under no conditions may guests be entertained in the dormitories or in the dining room without being registered in advance in the Social Office.

c. Alumnae and guests of college age are entertained in the dormitories for brief visits only, on the condition that they comply with the regulations of dormitory life.
1. When accommodations can be arranged, alumnae are entertained as guests of the College for two days. For longer visits rates quoted above are charged.

V. SOCIAL ROOMS AND KELLER

a. Arrangements for using equipment or rooms in Keller or in East or West are made through the Social Office.

b. In order that two events may not conflict, students planning parties or entertainments must consult the Social Calendar kept in the Social Office.

c. All electrical attachments must be used in the Keller kitchen, or in the kitchenettes of East or West.

VI. STUDENTS DRIVING IN PRIVATE CARS AND TAXIS

To provide the greatest possible protection for students against the danger of automobile accidents, the administration asks the cooperation of students, faculty, parents and friends in observing the following regulations for students driving in private cars and taxis:

1. For driving within a radius of 10 miles from the College, carloads are to be limited to six persons including the driver for a five-passenger car, and to three persons including the driver for a two-passenger car. This assumes that no luggage is carried. (This applies to private cars and to taxis.)

2. When the persons in the car are traveling with luggage or when the trip is beyond the radius of 10 miles from the College, carloads are to be limited to five persons including the driver for a five-passenger car, and to two persons including the driver for a two-passenger car. (This applies to private cars and to taxis.)

3. If a resident student operates a car, she must be accompanied by an older person who is responsible for the car. A day student may drive other students in her car only when accompanied by an older person who is responsible for the car. The state law of Virginia requires anyone who drives a car to have a driver's license.

Exceptions:

1. When students are leaving campus on a Dean's slip under the conditions as stated in Rule 10, page 59, and wish to drive with a resident student, the requirement that an older person be in the car shall be waived.

2. Day students and resident students whose homes are in Roanoke may drive other students within the city limits without having an older person in the car.

In this connection attention is called to the legal liability of any automobile driver for personal and property damage. In no instance would the College assume any of this liability, and it is recommended that those persons who invite students to ride in their cars be adequately protected with liability insurance.
ROOM ASSIGNMENTS

APPLICATIONS FOR ROOMS AND ROOMMATES

All communications, regarding rooms or roommates, should be addressed to

MISS LOUISE MADDOREY
Assistant to the Dean
Hollins College, Virginia

These should be sent in by September first, as assignments will be made at that time. Any girl desiring a particular roommate is urged to send this information direct to Miss Maddrey. All Freshmen will be assigned to West Building.

On arrival at the college all students are asked to call at the Social Office in Main Building for the purpose of registering with the Assistant to the Dean. Room assignments will be given out at that time.

HOLLINS COLLEGE POST OFFICE

There is, adjoining the business office, a United States post office equipped with post office lock boxes and other facilities. The government charges a post office box rental of thirty-five cents per quarter, payable in advance.

CHARLES L. COCKE MEMORIAL LIBRARY

The Charles L. Cocke Memorial Library, which contains over 33,500 volumes and receives around 170 periodicals and newspapers, is fully classified and catalogued.

Hours of Service:
Monday through Friday: 8-12 A.M. 1-5 P.M. 7-10 P.M.
Saturday: 8-12 A.M. 1-5 P.M.
Sunday: 9-12 A.M. 2:30-5:30 P.M.

Circulation Regulations: All books taken from the Library must be charged at the Loan Desk in the hall and returned to that desk when the student is through using the book. Books not in heavy use for specific class assignments may be borrowed for a period of one or two weeks, depending on the demand for the book, and may be renewed for the same period of time if no other student has requested the book. Those books needed for class work are reserved for use within the library, kept on special shelves, and marked with colored cards. Reserved books may be withdrawn from the library only when the library is closed, i.e., from 12-1 P.M., 5-7 P.M., and 10 P.M.-8 A.M. Students may sign to use overnight books after 1 P.M. on the day on which they want them, and they may sign to use reserve books in the library not more than a week in advance. A fine of two cents a day is charged for overdue books and a fine of twenty-five cents is charged for each overnight book not returned on time.
The Use of Books Within the Library: Books are to be used when possible in the room in which they are shelved, and if taken elsewhere in the building that fact should be reported to the desk assistant. To avoid misplacement, which means temporary loss, books must never be returned to the shelves except by members of the library staff. Reserve books should be brought to the desk as soon as the student has finished using them. All other books used within the library, with the exception of encyclopedias, reference books and periodicals, are to be brought to the Loan Desk as the student leaves the building. Encyclopedias, reference books, and periodicals should be left on the tables.

As the library is crowded, all students are expected to cooperate in maintaining order and quiet at all times.

Rental Library: In order to supplement our material for recreational reading, the library maintains a small rental library of some of the more significant popular books of current interest.

Student Library Committee: A student library committee, with representation from all classes, has been established to work with the librarians in the development of better service and the growth of reading interests.

HEALTH SERVICE

The health of the student is under the care of the college physician, the nurses and the members of the Department of Physical Education. General supervision is exercised to foster intelligent health habits in the lives of the students.

At the beginning of each year every student is required to take a medical examination. The appointment for this is made at the time of matriculation.

Other physicians and specialists may be consulted by students. Appointments with them must be made through the Infirmary in order that the campus health service can carry out its responsibility in regard to the health of the students.

Absence from academic work on account of illness must be excused by the physician or the nurse. Even slight illness must be reported to the nurse in order that the college may know that students are receiving proper care and that other students are protected from possible danger.

A student ill enough to be in bed is not allowed to remain in her residence hall, but is required to enter the Infirmary where she can be carefully supervised.

FACULTY AND ACADEMIC RULINGS
FACULTY RULINGS

MATRICULATION

On arrival at college the student reports first to the Social Office for assignment to her room. At this time the first-year student is given a card indicating the administrative officer to whom she is to report for advice concerning her course of study.

Preliminary to matriculation the student is required to secure a receipt from the Business Office showing that the payments required on entrance have been made.

All new students are required to be at the college on Monday evening, September 15. During the opening week all new students are individually advised by officers of the administration in the selection of their courses. Through group discussions with the leaders of the Student Government Association, they are introduced to the ideals and regulations governing college residence. During these days, also, all new students take psychological, medical, and physical tests, and are given some instruction in the use of the library. Every effort is made to adjust new students to the college before the work of the academic year begins. A more detailed program of opening week is mailed to students about the first week in September.

All students, new and old, are required to be present at a registration session, 9:00 P. M., Thursday, September 18.

The final day for completing matriculation is Friday, September 19.

ACADEMIC STANDARDS, GRADES AND EXAMINATIONS

Class standing in the college and the requirement for graduation are determined by a dual standard, one of quantity and the other of quality work completed, which is expressed in merit points.

At the end of each semester an examination limited to three hours is held in each course pursued by the student. The examination mark combined with the class standing determines the student's grade for the semester.

The grading system used is as follows:

- A—Excellent
- B—Good
- C—Fair
- D—Passing
- E—Failure with the privilege of re-examination
- F—Failure without the privilege of re-examination

In estimating merit points the following system is used:

- 1 semester hour with grade A counts 3 merit points
- 1 semester hour with grade B counts 2 merit points
- 1 semester hour with grade C counts 1 merit point

One merit point is deducted for each hour with a grade of F.

In courses which are continuous for the session, credit is allowed only for the full year's work.

A student in any full year course whose grade is D, or more, on the work of the first semester, but below D on that of the second, shall (unless re-examined) have her choice of the following courses of action: She may repeat the entire course, or she may let her grade for the first semester stand and repeat the work of the second semester only.
A student in any full year course, whose grade is below D on the first semester, but whose second semester grade is C, or more, may be given credit for the course at the discretion of the instructor.

No work of D grade may count on a major unless a committee of the faculty, composed of the heads of departments, makes a special exception upon the recommendation of a student's major professor.

All grades and results of semester examinations are announced to students through the Registrar’s Office and not by individual instructors.

A student who fails in two or more subjects during the first semester receives warning, and if she fails to complete credit in eighteen hours of work (exclusive of physical education) she is automatically excluded from college. Exceptions are made only for extraordinary reasons.

The College reserves the right to exclude at any time students whose conduct or academic standing is unsatisfactory.

Classification of Students

The minimum requirements for entering the different classes at the beginning of the first semester are as follows:

For Sophomores: Twenty-six semester hours and twenty-six merit points.

For Juniors: Fifty-eight semester hours and fifty-eight merit points.

For Seniors: A C average on the entire college record. At least ninety-two semester hours must have been completed.

A student may also enter the next highest class at the beginning of the second semester provided she completed in the first semester one-half the hours and merit points required of her in a session to attain promotion to the next highest class by the end of the session.

Class Privileges

No student shall be eligible for membership in any class organization or entitled to privileges appertaining to such class until officially informed of her class standing by the Registrar.

Exception: Students who fail to maintain their standing in the class in which they entered college are allowed to use the social privileges of that class, except that their nights off campus and the privilege of assuming responsibility of class attendance will depend on their academic standing.

Regular Examinations

Examinations (limited to three hours) are held at the end of each semester. The student is required to sign a pledge to the effect that she has neither given nor received help on the examination.

Examinations should be written in the regular examination books which may be purchased at the book shop.

A student may not leave campus for an overnight absence during either the mid-year or final examination period unless she has completed all of her examinations.

Re-Examinations

A student who attains in any course a semester grade of E may, upon recommendation of the instructor in charge, be permitted a re-examination immediately following the spring vacation or during the registration week of the following Sep-
The student planning to take such an examination in September must notify the Registrar by September 1.

The fee for each special or re-examination is $2.00 and a check for this amount should accompany all applications made to the Registrar. Any student who makes application for a special or re-examination after the specified date will be required to pay $4.00 for each instead of $2.00.

A student in any full year course, whose grade is below D on the first semester, but whose second semester grade is C, or more, may be given credit for the course at the discretion of the instructor.

A Senior who has a semester grade of E on any subject, may, upon recommendation of her instructor, be granted a re-examination before the end of the session at a time appointed by the Dean and the Registrar.

CLASS ATTENDANCE AND RESPONSIBILITY FOR ACADEMIC WORK

The regulations regarding class attendance and responsibility for academic work are made by the faculty and administered by the Dean and the Registrar.

CHANGES IN COURSES OF STUDY

Registration in all college classes is closed at the end of the first week of regular study in any semester. If for sufficient reason a student desires to enter a class later than this date, the request is sometimes granted, but with the understanding that her non-attendance at class after the first week shall come under the cut system.

A student dropping a course during the academic month excluding vacations before the mid-year or final examinations is given a grade of F. Arrangements for dropping a course are made by the Dean, after consultation with the College Physician and the instructor involved. Only in extreme cases where the health of the student is involved, is the grade of F waived.

No course may be added or dropped at any time without the written permission of the Dean.

ANNOUNCED WRITTENS

If a student is absent from an announced written lesson, she receives a grade of F on that written lesson, without privilege of making up the missed lesson. An excused absence entitles a student to make up a written lesson. The student must present a permit from the Registrar to the instructor if she wishes to make up the written.

The date of an announced written must be given to a class at least one week in advance.

A quiz schedule shall be kept in some accessible place in the Registrar’s Office, and each member of the faculty is requested to designate thereon the day and hour of each announced written two weeks in advance of the time it is to be given.

No student shall be expected to take more than two announced writtens on a single day. If an unavoidable case arises where a single student would have three assigned writtens scheduled for the same day, some special arrangement for this student may be made by the Registrar with the consent of the instructors.

HOURS OF WORK

All students are expected to pursue a program of thirty hours a session, excluding Hygiene 10 and Physical Education.
Students who desire to take more than thirty-two or less than twenty-four hours, excluding Physical Education, must secure the permission of the Classification Committee.

Requirements for Academic Honors

Honor Students

Students who average 2.3 merit points for each hour taken on the work of the previous session are known as Honor Students. These students may use their discretion about attending required lectures and entertainments, and are not limited in the use of Dean's slips.

In addition to the academic requirement, an honor student must be a good member of the college community.

Although the eligibility for the distinction of an honor student is based on the work of the entire session, a student who does not maintain the required average in the first semester will be removed from the list of Honor Students.

An Honor Student, upon advice from an instructor, may secure permission from the Dean before leaving college at Christmas and spring vacations and at midyear and final examination periods to absent herself from classes on calendar days for academic activities which may not be carried out on the campus or in Roanoke.

Freshman Honor List

The names of freshmen who average 2.0 merit points or better in their first semester's work are placed on the Freshman Honor List. Suitable recognition of their achievement is made by the College.

Graduates with Honor

To graduate with honor the student must average 2.3 merit points for each hour taken on the work of her college course. In case the student enters Hollins with advanced standing from some other institution, she will be required to maintain an average of 2.3 merit points for each hour taken at Hollins.

Responsibility for Academic Work and Class Attendance

The educational plan of Hollins College depends upon the cooperation of students and faculty. Students are held responsible for the full work of the courses in which they are registered, including participation in the discussion and work of the class day by day. Therefore, the importance of regular class attendance for all students is emphasized. Students are responsible for any work missed because of absence for any reason, and instructors are not expected to assist them in making up work missed on account of absence.

The regulations for class attendance are made by the faculty and administered by the Dean and the Registrar. Each instructor files daily with the Registrar a list of absences from his classes. Each student keeps her own record of absences, together with the date of each absence. This record must be presented to the Dean or the Registrar in case any question is raised about her attendance record. Excuses for absence from classes will not be accepted unless presented to the Registrar within three days after the termination of the absence.

A Committee on Absences composed of the Dean, the Registrar and three members of the faculty will assist in the administration of the regulations. A permanent record of the rulings of this committee shall be kept. The record of a student who has incurred a penalty shall be consulted whenever there may be occasion to determine her status in college.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING ATTENDANCE AND ABSENCE FROM CLASSES

I. Regulations Affecting Students of All Classes.

a. For the following reasons a student may take as many absences as are deemed necessary:

1. Illness of student. Excuse for illness must be accompanied by a doctor's certificate. (Appointments with dentists, oculists and physicians for general physical examinations will not be accepted as adequate excuses.)

2. Serious illness or death of a member of the student's family.

3. College business, subject to the regulation concerning scholastic requirement for leaving campus.

4. Organized field trips. These absences may not exceed one absence from each course in a semester.

b. Attendance is required of all students on certain occasions in the collective interest of the college group. A student absenting herself at such times, without adequate excuse as defined in Section I-A, incurs a penalty. On the following occasions a student may not be absent from classes without adequate excuse:

1. Two calendar days before and after Thanksgiving Day. Students who absent themselves from classes two calendar days before and after Thanksgiving Day will be fined $5.00 for each class missed.

2. Two calendar days before and after Christmas vacation, Spring vacation, Mid-Year and Final Examination periods. A student who is absent at these times must send within two days after her return to college a letter to the Dean explaining the reason for her absence. If the excuse is considered inadequate by the Committee on Absences, the Committee shall impose one or more of the following penalties:

   (1) A fine of not less than $5.00 for each class missed.

   (2) A deferred examination in the course, or courses, missed.

   (3) A loss for a specified time of the student's privilege to regulate her own class attendance.

   (4) Temporary or permanent exclusion from college.

3. Announced Writens.

   If a student absenting herself from an announced written, she receives the grade of F without the privilege of making it up.

4. Laboratory Work.

   If a student absenting herself from laboratory work, she may make it up at the convenience of the instructor with a fee of $1.00 an hour; otherwise she incurs a grade of F on the work missed.

c. All students are expected to be present on campus and to participate in the celebration of Founder's Day.
d. On the following occasions all students are required to register their return to campus by 9 P. M. on the day before classes are resumed:
1. Opening of the first semester.
2. Christmas vacation.
3. Spring vacation.
   Students without adequate excuse who fail to register by 9 P. M. on these occasions may not use the privilege of overnight absence from the campus for a period of eight weeks.

c. A student may not attend any section of her class other than her own.

II. Regulations Affecting Students in the Various Classes.

   Seniors and Juniors

   a. Seniors and Juniors assume responsibility for regulating their own attendance at classes except on the occasions listed in Section I.

   Honor Students

   b. Honor Students assume responsibility for regulating their own attendance at classes except on the occasions listed in Section I. Exceptions to this regulation are stated on page 86.

   Sophomores

   c. Sophomores who do not maintain this average are responsible for regulating their own attendance at classes in any semester, excepting the occasions listed in Section I, but may not be absent for more than eight class periods a semester.

   If a sophomore with limited class absences takes more than the stated number of absences during either semester, she incurs a month's "campus"; i.e., no overnight absences from campus for a month.

   The case of any sophomore who overcuts shall be reviewed by the Dean. If the Dean so desires, she may consult the Committee on Absences. The Dean or the committee may impose another penalty if the penalty of the regulation seems ineffective in the case involved.

   Freshmen

   d. Freshmen are responsible for regulating their own attendance at classes in the first semester, excepting all occasions listed in Section I, but may not be absent for more than six class periods.

   Freshmen who attain an average of 1.5 merit points for the first semester assume responsibility for regulating their own attendance at classes, with the exception of occasions listed in Section I.

   Freshmen who do not maintain this average are responsible for regulating their own attendance at classes, excepting occasions listed in Section I, but may not be absent for more than eight class periods during the second semester.

(90)
Second year freshmen who do not maintain the 1.5 merit point average are responsible for regulating their own attendance in any semester, excluding all occasions listed in Section I, but may not be absent for more than eight class periods in the first or second semester.

If any freshman with limited class absences takes more than the stated number of absences during either semester, she incurs a month’s “campus”; i.e., no overnight absences from campus for a month.

The case of any freshman who overcuts shall be reviewed by the Dean. If the Dean so desires, she may consult the Committee on Absences. The Dean or the Committee may impose another penalty if the penalty of the regulation seems ineffective in the case involved.

Unsatisfactory Work

Instructors may report to the Dean at any time the name of any student doing unsatisfactory work. She will be notified promptly by the Registrar; the responsibility for improving her work rests with the student.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION REGULATIONS

a. General Regulations

Regulations governing academic attendance and absence from classes apply in all respects to the students in Physical Education with the exceptions of Sections e and f under Section II (Regulations Affecting Students in the Various Classes), pages 90 and 91.

b. Special Regulations

1. Unexcused Absences

Unexcused absences from more than 25% of the classes of a course cause a student to receive the grade of F for the course and an Incomplete for the semester.

Note 1. In the two-hour classes, 25% means five unexcused absences, and in a one-hour class 25% means three unexcused absences.

Note 2. These absences do not count on one’s academic cuts.

Note 3. These absences may not be made up.

2. Excused Absences

Excused absences must be filed in the Physical Education office no later than one week after the date of absence or the absence record must stand as unexcused.

3. Make Up Work

Excused absences need not be made up. In case of graded practical work or sports knowledge tests, the privilege of make up is extended. Unexcused absences may not be made up. A grade of F is given on the graded work missed.

4. Physical Education Class Plan

The year’s program of Physical Education is divided into three divisions, and the absence regulations stated above apply to each division.

Outing

Hikes to nearby places are organized at different times during the year. There are also supper hikes in early fall and late spring. Aside from this there are short walks that students may take alone or in groups of two or three. A hiking map is posted in each dormitory showing the main walks around the College.

VIII.

Orchesis

President............................EVELYN ANDERSON

The purpose of Orchesis, the college dance organization, is to stimulate interest in the art of the dance, to increase proficiency and to sponsor art programs. Membership is based upon demonstration of skill and interest. One of the major projects of the club is the yearly presentation of a program of the dance in the spring.

IX.

Riding Club

President.............................MOLLY WEEKS

The number of girls participating in recreational riding at Hollins has increased each year, and, consequently, the Riding Club has grown in size. Try-outs for membership in the club are held twice during the year, eligibility being based on ability and interest. There are many delightful rides which may be taken over twenty miles of bridle paths. Picnics, breakfast and supper parties, moonlight rides, and a gymkhana are sponsored by the club during the year. In the spring the Riding Club presents its annual Horse Show in which qualified riders take part. At this time the champion rider is awarded a cup on which her name is engraved. This belongs to the Hollins College Riding Club, but the winner keeps a small replica cup which is given by the club. In honor of Mr. Joseph A. Turner, a memorial cup has been instituted to be presented annually, the winner of which will also keep a small replica cup.

Those girls who wish to ride must file in the Social Office permission from their parents. Special permission must be filed for jumping and for participation in each Horse Show.

Orders for horses must be made through the Social Office as follows:

For the afternoon, by 1:00 P. M. on the day the horses are to be used.

For morning riding, by 6:00 P. M. of the previous day.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

The International Relations Club was founded in the belief that through a study of international relations the individual can be more intelligent and more effective in promoting world peace. However, with the realization of the growing interdependence of the nations we have come to recognize that an understanding of national affairs is necessary to any appraisal of the international situation. Therefore, the club interests itself in domestic affairs when they are related to international problems, laying particular stress on American Foreign Policy.

Membership is open to all students and faculty who are interested in these problems. The club meets every two weeks, usually for discussion, but with outside or local speakers whenever possible. The International Relations Club also sponsors several college convocations during the year, and is active in some national and international programs for peace, working in cooperation with the Student Government Association, the Y. Freya is the honorary organization of Hollins, which seeks to recognize achievement in college by choosing to membership those girls who have contributed to Hollins in one or more fields of activity and who are guided in all they do by a spirit of love for and fidelity to their Alma Mater. Freya was founded in 1903 by a group of Hollins girls who felt the need of some organization which should embody the high ideals by which they sought to live; that by union under the bond of common purpose, they might set these ideals as a standard of life of the noblest minded of Hollins girls; and in living day by day the principles which they acknowledged, might exert an influence for good, touching and uplifting all who came to live at Hollins. Though it has undergone many changes since that time, it still retains as a heritage from the past the legend of the Goddess Freya and still strives to achieve the loveliness which was Freya's nature for she was beautiful with the beauty which comes from a beautiful heart—hers was a spirit of purity, strength, and, above all, love.

HOLLINS SONGS

The Green and the Gold

(Words by Phoebe Hunter, 1909. Music by Almah McConigley, 1911)

I.
O fair maiden Spring, what hue will you bring
To our cause from your own sunny sheen?
You have brought for your part the hue nearest your heart
And spread Hollins' hillsides with green.
And you, frosty Fall, the most brilliant of all,
What color for us do you hold?
You have laid your fair hand with its touch on our land,
And set our trees flaming with gold.

II.
The Green and the Gold, we have loved it of old,
And to it we will ever be true.
For the memory will last of the days that are past,
And linger, dear Hollins, with you.
For life, when we're young, is a song that is sung,
And must pass as a tale that is told,
But honor and praise, to the end of our days,
We will render the Green and the Gold.

III.
And still at the thought of the good she has wrought,
Each heart must with gratitude thrill—
So to Hollins we'll sing till the mountainsides ring,
Our jewel of woodland and hill.
There are true, loyal friends that our college life lends,
And treasures of life manifold,
And may kind fortune bless with eternal success
Our Hollins, the Green and the Gold.

Founder's Day Hymn

(Words by Miss Loulie A. Snead. Music by Prof. Erich Rath)

I.
Where are the dreams of the dreamer?
Roseate they flashed in the dawn,
Instinct with promise of sunrise,
Of service to ages unborn.
Eager and restless and honest,
Daring, aspiring, and bright—
Where is the vision? 'Twas holy;
Can it be lost with the night?

II.
We are the dreams of the dreamer.
Think you his vision could fade?
Saw you his eyes as he journeyed?
Know you the price that he paid?
Ours the fruition of gladness,
Ours the light and the gleam—
Lifting our eyes to the mountains,
We, too, are dreaming a dream.

III.
Guard you the dreams of the dreamer,
Quiet the ways that he trod.
Held in its chalice of mountains,
Hollins lies open to God.
Simple and earnest and daring,
Friendly and quiet and true;
Such was the dream of our Founder,
Such was his ideal for you.

(121)
To Miss Matty
From the Class of 1931
(Words by Mary Adams Holmes. Music by Mary Belle Deaton)
It’s little youth can know of sacrifice,
Of living for some high and radiant goal;
Our lives made up of broken, hurried days
Grasp not the rounded beauty of the whole.
Yet always, our Miss Matty, at your name,
Forgetful of our careless joy and tears,
We suddenly fall silent and our eyes
Are mazed by your brave challenge of the years.

To Miss Randolph
From the Class of 1938
(Words by Adelaide Smith. Music by Catherine Wright)
In these trees, strong with the years gone by,
In these white columns, ever straight and true,
These quiet hills against a quiet sky,
That sky itself, peace shadowed in its blue;
In this world within the hills where we at length
Love those things most for all they come to mean,
We find in you, Miss Randolph, all their strength,
Their depth and calm, eternal, changeless, and serene.

Hollins, Temple of Our Hearts
(Hollins Prize Song, 1926-1927)
(Words by Dorothy Sheffey Baldwin, ’28. Music by Vera Howard, ’29)

I.
Hollins, temple of our hearts,
White thy slender pillars gleam,
As the golden light departs,
Casting shadows on the stream.
Soon upon their silver stalks
Stars will blossom in the night,
While the moon in beauty walks
Through her garden of delight.

II.
White as columns dimly seen
Down the tree-walled aisles of shade,
Clear as starlight's crystal sheen
Burns thy fire that shall not fade—
Altar fire of faith and trust
Shining through the somber years,
Kindled from the common dust
Of our mortal hopes and fears.

III.
We forever guard thy shrine,
Decked with lovely wreaths of mirth;
All our ardent youth is thine,
Thine the fragrance of the earth.
Every gift thou didst bestow
We shall offer thee again,
That thy stately walls may grow,
Treasured in the hearts of men.
Learning

(Words by Dorothy Sheffey Baldwin, '28. Music by William E. Haesche)

I.
Our moments haste with silver feet
To join the world's wide wand'ring ways
Where mirth and sorrow strangely meet
Beyond the calm of college days.
Though brief our path before us lies,
We know that Hollins makes us wise.

II.
We shall confront with equal truth
Our mortal weakness and our strength,
And offer hostage of our youth
To bring a clearer dawn at length,
For Hollins, like a beacon far,
Will lead where paths of honor are.

Hollins is Our Ideal

Hollins is our ideal,
Memory immortal,
Echo of golden days,
Through tradition's portal.
Soft her spirit is always bringing
Courage strong in its flight to me,
We will ever sing her praise;
Hollins is our ideal
Of the happiest days.

Return

(Alumnae Hymn)

(Words by Frances Stockley Lankford, 1930.
Music by Virginia Egolf Walters, 1929)

Unchanged are these dim hills, these quiet trees,
Unchanged each column, every mellowed wall
Where ancient ivy weaves its mysteries
Mutation leaves not any mark at all.
Only new faces tilt to the first star,
Fresh laughter echoes, other voices sing.
Our pain is mirrored in no slightest scar
Nor our delight by any shining thing.

For still blue Tinker's peaks are touched with dreams,
Still wisdom echoes in the whispered stir
Of trees we knew while silver and serene
The creek laughs where the wind is spiced with fir.
O, well remembered beauty heal anew
Whatever exiles may come home to you.
O, well remembered beauty heal anew
Whatever exiles may come home to you.
I Want to Go Back to Hollins Land

I want to go back to Hollins Land,
To Tinker Tea House, too,
Back to all the money I spend,
Back to all the clothes I lend,
I want to go back to Hollins Land,
Oh, take me back, oh, do!
For I want to go back,
I've got to go back to Hollins Land.

When you're away from Hollins Land,
You don't know what to do;
Nothing to spend your money for,
No one to shush you from the door;
When you're away from Hollins Land,
You're feeling awful blue,
'Cause you want to go back,
You've got to go back
To Hollins Land.

---

We Love You, Hollins College

We love you, Hollins College, with old Tinker standing guard,
We love you, Hollins College, may your spirit ne'er be marr'd.
Your colors ever call us, from afar we'll come to you,
For we love you, Hollins College, founded Eighteen Forty-Two.

H-o-l-l-i-n-s

H-o-I-I-i-n-s, Hollins, rah!
Our Hollins College, we'll sing to you,
Pride of Virginia's land,
We love you, yes, we do, dear Hollins,
Long may we cherish thee, love and adore,
Sing, praise and honor forevermore.

Oh, see those girls of Hollins,
All standing in a line,
And all of them are mighty, mighty fine;
They know just how to work there, they know just how to play,
Oh, Hollins girls, we'll cheer you every time.

Now Sweet Briar's not slow,
Randolph-Macon's on the go,
And Westhampton is mighty, mighty fine,
But give us, oh give us, oh how I wish you would,
Our dear old Hollins College every time.
