TO THE CLASS OF 1949 AND OTHER NEW STUDENTS

When the one hundred and fourth session of Hollins College opens in September, 1945, I shall greet the new students with a special sense of privilege.

In these days of continuing and critical war, you have chosen to enter upon the privileges and, therefore, the serious responsibilities of higher education. Part of your college years will coincide with the final period of a victorious war in the Far East, but the greater part, let us hope, will fall in the postwar months. You will do your full part in the months of war, but you must not fail to equip yourself in college faithfully and fully in order that you may undertake and fulfill a worthy role in the long and critical years of building and maintaining peace.

Among all the members of our faculty and staff, I wish to be the first to welcome you.

Bessie C. Randolph, President.
This message carries my warm greetings to the new students of Hollins. You are beginning your college work in days of social upheaval. Never before have the challenges and opportunities for young women been greater. In the building of world peace and in sustaining the principles of democratic life, both at home and abroad, the responsibility of each individual is most important. Our objectives must be intelligently and unselfishly directed. Education is more necessary than ever.

In the years ahead you will continue to learn the things which give meaning and purpose to life. We are counting on your sincerity and your cooperation. Ours is the task of helping you and guiding you to develop your best abilities; yours is the responsibility of doing your best work. It is my earnest hope that together we can make your college experience a satisfying, valuable, and happy one.

I look forward to seeing you in September and am eager to know you well.

MARY PHLEGR SMITH,
Dean.
FOREGROUND

The Student Government Association of Hollins College is composed of all students, and is founded upon the principles of honor and self-reliance. It purposes to represent and to further the best interest of the student body, to secure cooperation between the different organizations, and to promote responsibility, self-control, and loyalty among the students.

With such ideals the fundamental principle to be recognized is that of individual responsibility, not only for one's self but for the entire group. This necessitates a clear and comprehensive understanding of the ideals of a student group thus organized. It implies a recognition of the spirit as well as the letter of our laws, and a thoughtful and sympathetic consideration of all phases of student life. From this will follow an active cooperation and a sincere interest in upholding the history, ideals and spirit of our college.

THE HONOR PLEDGE

Each student, upon her entrance at Hollins, becomes a member of the Student Government Association. As a member she shall sign the following pledge:

I, ___________ upon my honor, do hereby pledge myself to honesty in academic work and in student relations, and also to abide by the regulations of the Student Government Association, in spirit as well as in fact. I further promise to help any other person in the Association by calling to her attention any misconduct on her part or reporting her action to those in authority in the Association.

I understand that a plea of ignorance will not excuse my failure to keep this pledge.

As a member of the Student Government Association, every girl shares its obligations and responsibilities as well as its privileges and therefore must be willing to subordinate her own standards to those of the community as embodied in its regulations. She must accept responsibility for her own conduct and must also cooperate in holding others to the standards of Hollins and in reminding them of their obligations in case of non-conformity.

CONSTITUTION of the Student Government Association

PREAMBLE

We, the students of Hollins College, desiring to assume responsibility in the management of student affairs, do hereby, in accordance with an agreement between students and faculty, organize ourselves into an association, to be called the Student Government Association of Hollins College.

ARTICLE I.—Object

While recognizing the college administration and the Board of Trustees as final authority on all matters pertaining to student welfare, this organization shall have as its primary concern the physical, cultural, intellectual, and spiritual development of the student. We shall encourage and strengthen the spirit of unity in every phase of the community life of Hollins College, by fostering in its members an active understanding of individual and group responsibility and a loyalty to the ideals upon which our philosophy of student government is based.

ARTICLE II.—The General Association

Section I. All students shall be members of the Student Government Association.

Section II. The members shall be responsible for knowledge of this constitution, of all Student Government regulations, and of all action taken at the meetings of the Association.

Section III. Regular meetings shall be held weekly. The business of the Association pertaining to all matters not reserved to the faculty, the administration, or delegated to the Joint Legislative Committee by the Association, shall be transacted in these meetings. Special meetings may be called by the President or upon the request of five members of the Association. Two formal meetings of the Association shall be held. The first of these shall be in the fall, at which time the Association shall be formally opened. The second of these shall be held in the spring, at which time the new officers of the Association shall be installed.

Section IV. Attendance at all meetings of the Association is compulsory. In exceptional cases, however, the President has the power to excuse a member.

Section V. A simple majority of the members of the Association shall constitute a quorum. A simple majority vote of the members present shall be required to make decisions.

Section VI. Dues shall be assessed and collected as provided in the By-Laws, Article III.

Section VII. The meetings of the Association shall be conducted according to Robert's Rules of Order, Revised.

ARTICLE III.—Officers of the Association

Section I. The officers of this Association shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer.

Section II. The officers shall be nominated and elected as provided in Article IX.

Section III. The general duties of the officers shall be as follows: The President shall call and preside over meetings of the Association, and shall call special meetings when necessary. She shall perform all duties usually pertaining to the office of President. The Vice President shall assume the duties of the President in the absence, or at the request of, the President. She shall act as Recorder for the Association. The Secretary shall keep a record of all meetings of the Association, and shall perform all other duties usually pertaining to the office of Secretary. The Treasurer shall collect all revenue of the Association and supervise the use of the funds of the Association as provided in Article V and By-Laws, Article I. She shall make a semi-annual report to the Executive Council and shall perform all other duties usually pertaining to the office of Treasurer.

Section IV. Other executive duties of the Officers of the Association shall be as provided in Article V.

ARTICLE IV.—The Legislative Department

Section I. The principal legislative power of the Association shall be vested in the Joint Legislative Committee.

Section II. The primary purpose of this Committee shall be to legislate for the Association and to perform other duties necessary for carrying through the work. It shall receive, in writing, petitions and suggestions for legislation from members of the campus community, and it shall also legislate for any other campus group so desiring.

Section III. The Committee shall be composed of seven faculty members and fourteen students. Of the faculty representation two shall be ex officio members: the Dean of the College and the Assistant to the Dean. The additional faculty representatives, serving for a period of two years, shall be appointed by the President of the College from suggestions presented to the President by the Executive Council. The terms for these members shall be overlapping, three being appointed in the odd years, two in the even years.

Of the student representation ten shall be ex officio members: the President of the Association, the Chairman of the Honor Court, the Chairman of the House Board, the four Class Presidents, the Chairman of the Student Curriculum Committee, the Chairman of the Handbook Committee, and the Editor of Hollins Columns. The additional student representation shall be one member elected by each class.

Section IV. The voting members of the Committee shall be: the five appointed faculty representatives, the four students elected to the Committee, the President of the Association, the Dean of the Honor Court, the Dean of the House Board, and the presidents of the Senior and Junior classes. The Dean and the Assistant to the Dean, as representatives of the Dean's department, shall have one vote.

A three-fourths majority of the entire voting membership of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. Any legislation passed by a seven-tenths majority of the entire voting membership shall become law upon the approval of the President of the College.

Section V. The officers of the Committee shall be a Chairman, a Secretary-Treasurer, and a Chairman of the Steering Committee. The May meeting of the Committee shall be called by the former Chairman. Prior to this meeting she shall have appointed a sub-committee, from the incoming Committee, which shall present at the meeting a slate for the election of the Chairman, the Secretary-Treasurer—one a student, the other a faculty member—and the Chairman of the Steering Committee. These officers shall be nominated from the voting membership. In addition to the names presented by the sub-committee, nominations may be made from the floor. A three-fourths majority of the entire voting membership shall constitute a quorum. A simple majority vote of those present shall be required to elect.

These officers shall serve for the following year. When a vacancy occurs in any office during the year, one of the remaining officers shall call a special meeting to elect an officer to the vacant position.

Section VI. The duties of the officers shall be as follows:

a. The Chairman of the Committee shall call all meetings and preside thereat, receive in writing petitions and suggestions for legislation from members of the campus community, appoint all temporary sub-committees, and serve ex officio on all sub-committees.

b. The Secretary-Treasurer shall make complete files of all proceedings of the Committee’s meetings, of all bills proposed to the President, and of those that become incorporated into the body of campus law, act as chairman of the Drafting Committee, and serve ex officio on the Steering Committee. She shall perform all duties usually pertaining to the office of Treasurer.

c. The Chairman of the Steering Committee, having determined with this group the agenda of the Joint Legislative Committee, shall announce it in the college newspaper, or in an Association meeting, or on the bulletin board. She shall post on the bulletin board for a period of one week a copy of each petition as it is deliberated by the Committee and also a summary of the Committee’s discussion on any petitions which it rejects.

Section VII. There shall be two scheduled meetings of the Committee, the first no earlier than May, the other no later than the following October. The exact dates of these meetings are to be left to the discretion of the Chairman of the Committee each year, but the date of the fall meeting shall be fixed at the previous May meeting of the Committee. The regular sessions of the Joint Legislative Committee shall start after February 15, when all petitions must be presented, and closed by April 15. At least one open forum may be called by the Chairman, should the subject under consideration be sufficiently controversial. The open forum shall not be a voting session. The Chairman shall have the power to call additional meetings at any time during the year and upon the request of any member of the Committee. Meetings shall be conducted according to Robert’s Rules of Order, Revised.

Section VIII. The Committee shall establish and maintain all committees necessary for carrying on the business of the Committee.

The following standing committees shall be maintained:

a. The Steering Committee shall receive in writing from the Chairman of the Joint Legislative Committee petitions and suggestions for legislation, which it shall organize and pass on to the appropriate bodies for consideration. It shall also prepare the agenda of the Joint Legislative Committee. This Committee shall be composed of the Chairman and Secretary-Treasurer of the Joint Legislative Committee and one other representative elected by this body to serve as chairman of this sub-committee.

b. The Drafting Committee, working with the accepted petitions, shall draft the bills, consider related regulations which may be affected by the new proposals and, if necessary, propose new revisions to maintain uniformity or avoid contradiction in regulations. The Secretary-Treasurer shall act as chairman of this committee, which shall include the Chairman of the Joint Legislative Committee, the Chairman of the Handbook Committee, and one faculty representative appointed by the Chairman of the Joint Legislative Committee.

It shall be the duty of this department to impose penalties for any violation of Student Government regulations; to suspend or expel a student, with the approval of the President of the College, for any flagrant violation of the rules; and to grant and observe the privilege of Association members to demand a hearing before the Court, to consider all cases brought by the Association members, and to intervene in cases of unbecoming conduct on the part of any student even when no specific regulation is broken.

REGULATIONS
GENERAL INFORMATION

SOCIAL OFFICE

Residence life at Hollins is organized for the purpose of maintaining the best possible life for students. It is to this end that regulations are set up. All students are individually responsible for thoughtful and intelligent use of the regulations and privileges. They are expected to cooperate at all times with the Student Government Association. The Social Office is the center of residence and social life and is under the direction of Miss Maddrey, the Assistant to the Dean.

Functions: In the Social Office in Main Building

All students register immediately on arrival at college in September.

All dates and other visitors are received.

All off-campus permissions and permissions for being out of buildings after 11:30 P. M. are obtained.

All parties must be registered on the Social Calendar. To avoid conflicts, individual students planning parties or entertainments must consult this Social Calendar. Arrangements for using equipment or social rooms in Keller, East or West are then made with the head of the building.

Arrangements are made for taxi service, special bus trips, horseback riding, hotel reservations, chaperonage, theater tickets, etc.

Whenever reservations are to be made by the college, the Social Office must be notified at least 48 hours in advance of departure from campus.

All new students are required to be at the College on Monday evening, September 17. On arrival at college the student reports first to the Social Office for assignment to her room. After this she goes to West Building where she meets Miss Falvey, the Adviser to Freshmen, who gives her the appointment cards for her physical and medical examination.

Preliminary to matriculation the student is required to secure a receipt from the Business Office showing that the payments required on entrance have been made.

During the opening week all new students are individually advised by officers of the administration in the selection of their courses. Through group discussions with the leaders of the Student Government Association, they are introduced to the ideals and regulations governing college residence. During these days, also, all new students take achievement tests, medical and physical examinations, and are given some instruction in the use of the library. Every effort is made to adjust new students to the College before the work of the academic year begins. A more detailed program of opening week is mailed to students about the first week in September.

All students, new and old, are required to be present at a combined assembly, 9:00 P. M., Thursday, September 20. A student without adequate excuse who fails to attend this assembly may not use the privilege of overnight absence from the campus for a period of eight weeks.

The final day for completing matriculation is Friday, September 21.

II—Academic Standards and Grades

A. Class standing in the College and the requirement for graduation are determined by a dual standard, one of quantity, which is expressed in semester hours, and the other of quality of work completed, which is expressed in merit points.

At the end of each semester an examination limited to three hours is held in each course pursued by the student. The examination mark combined with the marks on recitation and laboratory work determine the student's grade for the semester in any given course.

The grading system used is as follows:

- A: Excellent
- B+, B: Good
- C+, C: Fair
- D: Passing
- E: Conditioned Failure
- F: Failure

In estimating merit points the following system is used:

1 semester hour with grade A counts 3 merit points
1 semester hour with grade B+ counts 2.5 merit points
1 semester hour with grade B counts 2 merit points
1 semester hour with grade C+ counts 1.5 merit points
1 semester hour with grade C counts 1 merit point

Grades of D, E, and F carry no merit point credit.
B. In courses which are continuous for the session, credit is allowed only for the full year's work.

All grades and results of semester examinations are announced to students through the Registrar's Office and not by individual instructors.

C. A student in any full year course whose grade is D, or better, on the work of the first semester, but below D on that of the second, shall (unless re-examined) have her choice of the following courses of action: She may repeat the entire course, or she may let her grade for the first semester stand and repeat the work of the second semester only.

A student in any full year course, whose grade is E on the first semester, but whose second semester grade is C, or better, may be given credit for the course at the discretion of the instructor.

A Senior who has a semester grade of E on any subject may, upon recommendation of her instructor, be granted a re-examination before the end of the session at a time appointed by the Dean and the Registrar.

No work of D grade, or lower, may count on a major unless the faculty votes to make an exception after recommendation for such action by the Division in which the major work is done.

D. Instructors may report to the Dean at any time the name of any student doing unsatisfactory work. This student will be notified promptly by the Registrar; the responsibility for improving her work rests with the student.

A student who fails in two or more subjects during the first semester receives warning, and if at the end of the session she has not satisfactorily completed enough work to justify continuing in college, she is not permitted to return. Each case is dealt with individually, and the welfare of the student as well as the standards of the College are kept in mind.

The College reserves the right to exclude at any time students whose conduct or academic standing is unsatisfactory.

III—Examinations

A. Final Examinations. Examinations (limited to three hours in each course) are held at the end of each semester. The student is required to pledge each examination to the effect that she has neither given nor received help on it.

A student may not leave campus for an overnight absence during either the mid-year or final examination period unless she has completed all of her examination.

B. Re-Examinations. A student who attains in any course a semester grade of E may, upon recommendation of the instructor in charge, be permitted a re-examination immediately following the spring vacation or during the registration week of the following September. The student planning to take such an examination in September must notify the Registrar by September 1.

The fee for each re-examination is $2.00 and a check for this amount should accompany all applications made to the Registrar. Any student who makes application for a re-examination after the specified date will be required to pay $4.00 for each instead of $2.00.

C. Announced Writtens. If a student is absent from an announced written lesson, without an adequate excuse, she receives a grade of F on that written lesson. An excused absence entitles a student to make up a written lesson. The student must present a permit from the Registrar to the instructor if she wishes to make up the written.

The date of an announced written must be given to a class at least one week in advance.

A quiz schedule shall be kept in some accessible place in the Registrar’s Office, and each member of the faculty is requested to designate thereon the day and hour of each announced written two weeks in advance of the time it is to be given.

No student shall be expected to take more than two announced writtens on a single day. If an unavoidable case arises where a single student would have three assigned writtens scheduled for the same day, some special arrangement for this student may be made by the Registrar with the consent of the instructors.

IV—Classification of Students

A. The minimum requirements for entering the different classes at the beginning of the first semester are as follows:

For Sophomores: Twenty-four semester hours and twenty-four merit points.

For Juniors: Fifty-six semester hours and fifty-six merit points.

For Seniors: At least ninety-two semester hours must have been completed with at least a C average on the entire college record.

A student, who fails to attain her classification at the beginning of a session, may enter the next higher class at the beginning of the second semester provided she has completed in the first semester enough hours and merit points to cancel her deficiency and has also completed one-half the hours and merit points required of her in that session to attain promotion to the next higher class by the end of the session.

B. Class Privileges. No student shall be eligible for membership in any class organization or entitled to privileges appertaining to such class until officially informed of her class standing by the Registrar.

Exception: Students who fail to maintain their standing in the class in which they entered college are allowed to use the social privileges of that class except that their nights off campus and the privilege of assuming responsibility of class attendance will depend on their academic standing.

V—Changes in Courses of Study

A. Registration in all college classes is closed at the end of the first week of regular study in any semester. If for sufficient reason a student desires to enter a class later than this date, the request is sometimes granted, but with the understanding that her non-attendance at class after the first week shall come under the cut system.

B. No course may be added or dropped at any time without the approval of the Dean and written permission of the Registrar’s Office.

A student dropping a course during the academic month excluding vacations before the mid-year or final examinations automatically receives a grade of F. Only in extreme cases, where the health of the student is involved, is the grade of F waived.
VI—Responsibility for Academic Work and Class Attendance

A. The educational plan of Hollins College depends upon the cooperation of students and faculty. Students are held responsible for the full work of the courses in which they are registered, including participation in the discussion and work of the class day by day. Therefore, the importance of regular class attendance for all students is emphasized. Students are responsible for any work missed because of absence for any reason.

The regulations for class attendance are made by the faculty and administered by the Dean and the Registrar. Each instructor files daily with the Registrar a list of absences from his classes. Excuses for absence from classes must be presented to the Registrar within three days after the termination of the absence.

B. A Committee on Absences composed of the Dean, the Registrar, and three members of the faculty assists in the administration of the regulations. A permanent record of the rulings of this Committee is kept and referred to whenever necessary.

Through the Executive Council students participate in the interpretation of the policies of the Committee on Absences. These students are not active members of the Committee but serve in the capacity of advisory representatives of the student body.

Each student whose case is dealt with by the Committee on Absences must present a statement in writing explaining in detail the reasons for her absence. She may also, if she wishes, appear before the Committee on Absences to present her case before a decision has been reached.

C. Classes begin promptly at ten minutes past the hour. Students entering after that time are counted as absent. Students are expected to wait for an instructor until twenty minutes past the hour. If an instructor has not arrived by that time and has made no arrangements for the work of the class, students are at liberty to leave. Instructors are asked to report as absent students who leave the class before the period is over.

VII—Regulations Governing Attendance and Absence from Classes

A. Regulations Affecting Students of All Classes.

1. For the following reasons a student may take as many absences as are deemed necessary:

a. Illness of student. Written confirmation must be presented by the college infirmary or the attending physician. (Appointments with dentists, oculists and physicians for general physical examinations will not be accepted as adequate excuses.)

b. Serious illness or death of a member of the student's family.

c. College business, subject to the regulation concerning scholastic requirement for leaving campus.

d. Organized field trips. These absences may not exceed one absence from each course in a semester.
2. a. If a student absents herself, without adequate excuse, from an announced written, she receives the grade of F without the privilege of making it up.

b. If a student absents herself, without adequate excuse, from laboratory work, she may make it up at the convenience of the instructor with a fee of $1.00 an hour; otherwise, she incurs a grade of F on the work missed.

c. A student may not attend any section of her class other than her own.

3. Attendance is required of all students on certain occasions in the collective interest of the college group. These occasions and the penalties incurred if the student absents herself at such times, without adequate excuse as defined in Section A-I, are listed below:

a. Two calendar days before and after Thanksgiving Day. Students who absent themselves from classes two calendar days before and after Thanksgiving Day will be fined $5.00 for each class missed.

b. Two calendar days before and after Christmas vacation, Spring vacation, Midyear and Final Examination periods. A student who is absent at these times must send within two days after her return to college, a letter to the Dean explaining the reason for her absence. If the excuse is considered inadequate by the Committee on Absences, the Committee shall impose one or more of the following penalties:

1. A fine of not less than $5.00 for each class missed.

2. A deferred examination in the course, or courses, missed.

3. A loss for a specified time of the student's privilege to regulate her own class attendance.

4. Temporary or permanent exclusion from college.

4. All students are expected to be present on campus and to participate in the celebration of Founder's Day.

B. Regulations Affecting Students in the Various Classes.

1. Honor students, Seniors, and Juniors assume responsibility for regulating their own attendance at classes except on the occasions listed in Section A-3. Exceptions to this regulation are stated on page 80.

2. Sophomores:

a. Sophomores who attain an average of 1.5 merit points per hour in the preceding semester assume responsibility for regulating their own attendance at classes excepting the occasions listed in Section A-3.

b. Sophomores who do not attain this average may not be absent for more than eight class periods a semester.

3. Freshmen:

a. Freshmen may not be absent for more than six class periods in the first semester.

b. Freshmen who attain an average of 1.5 merit points for the first semester assume responsibility for regulating their own attendance at classes in the second semester, with the exception of occasions listed in Section A-3. Freshmen who do not attain this average may not be absent for more than eight periods during the second semester.
c. Second year freshmen who do not attain the 1.5 merit point average may not be absent for more than eight class periods in the first or second semester.

4. The case of any Freshman or Sophomore who overcuts shall be reviewed by the Dean. The minimum penalty is a month's "campus," i.e., no overnight absences from campus for a month. If the Dean so desires, she may consult the Committee on Absences and either the Dean or the Committee may impose another penalty.

VIII—Honor Students

Students who have a merit point average of 2.3 on the work of the previous session are known as Honor Students. These students may use their discretion about attending classes, required lectures and entertainments, and are not limited in the use of Dean's slips.

In addition to the academic requirement, an Honor Student must be a good member of the college community.

Although the eligibility for the distinction of an Honor Student is based on the work of the entire session, a student who does not maintain the required average in the first semester will be removed from the list of Honor Students.

An Honor Student, upon the advice of an instructor, may secure permission from the Dean before leaving college at Christmas and spring vacations and at midyear and final examination periods to absent herself from classes on calendar days for academic activities which may not be carried out on the campus or in Roanoke.

IX—Physical Education Regulations

A. General Regulations

Regulations governing academic attendance and absence from classes apply in all respects to the students in Physical Education with the exceptions of Sections 2 and 3 under Section VII B, pages 79 and 80.

B. Special Regulations

1. Unexcused Absences

Unexcused absences from more than 25% of the classes of a course cause a student to receive the grade of F for the course and an Incomplete for the semester.

Note 1. In the two-hour classes, 25% means five unexcused absences, and in a one-hour class 25% means three unexcused absences.

Note 2. These absences do not count on the student's academic cuts.

Note 3. These absences may not be made up.

2. Excused Absences

Excused absences must be filed in the Physical Education office no later than one week after the date of absence or the absence record must stand as unexcused.

3. Make Up Work

Excused absences need not be made up. In case of graded practical work or sports knowledge tests, the privilege of make up is extended. Unexcused absences may not be made up. A grade of F is given on the graded work missed.

4. Physical Education Class Plan

The year's program of Physical Education is divided into three divisions, and the absence regulations stated above apply to each division.
ROOM ASSIGNMENTS

APPLICATIONS FOR ROOMS AND ROOMMATES

All communications, regarding rooms or roommates, should be addressed to

MISS LOUISE MADREY
Assistant to the Dean
Hollins College, Virginia

These should be sent in by September first, as assignments will be made at that time. Any girl desiring a particular roommate is urged to send this information direct to Miss Maddrey. All Freshmen will be assigned to West Building.

On arrival at the college all students are asked to call at the Social Office in Main Building for the purpose of registering with the Assistant to the Dean. Room assignments will be given out at that time.

CHARLES L. COCKE MEMORIAL LIBRARY

The Charles L. Cocke Memorial Library, which contains over 33,500 volumes and receives around 170 periodicals and newspapers, is fully classified and catalogued.

Hours of Service:
Monday through Friday . . 8-12 A. M. 1-5 P. M. 7-10 P. M.
Saturday ................. 8-12 A. M. 1-5 P. M.
Sunday ................. 9-12 A. M. 2:30-5:30 P. M.

Circulation Regulations: All books taken from the Library must be charged at the Loan Desk in the hall and returned to that desk when the student is through using the book. Books not in heavy use for specific class assignments may be borrowed for a period of one or two weeks, depending on the demand for the book, and may be renewed for the same period of time if no other student has requested the book. Those books needed for class work are reserved for use within the library, kept on special shelves, and marked with colored cards. Reserved books may be withdrawn from the library only when the library is closed, i. e., from 12-1 P. M., 5-7 P. M., and 10 P. M.-8 A. M. Students may sign to use overnight books after 1 P. M. on the day on which they want them, and they may sign to use reserve books in the library not more than a week in advance. A fine of two cents a day is charged for overdue books and a fine of twenty-five cents is charged for each overnight book not returned on time.
The Use of Books within the Library: Books are to be used when possible in the room in which they are shelved, and if taken elsewhere in the building that fact should be reported to the desk assistant. To avoid misplacement, which means temporary loss, books must never be returned to the shelves except by members of the library staff. Reserve books should be brought to the desk as soon as the student has finished using them. All other books used within the library, with the exception of encyclopedias, reference books and periodicals, are to be brought to the Loan Desk as the student leaves the building. Encyclopedias, reference books, and periodicals should be left on the tables.

As the library is crowded, all students are expected to cooperate in maintaining order and quiet at all times.

Rental Library: In order to supplement our material for recreational reading, the library maintains a small rental library of some of the more significant popular books of current interest.

Student Library Committee: A student library committee, with representation from all classes, has been established to work with the librarians in the development of better service and the growth of reading interests.

HEALTH SERVICE

The health of the student is under the care of the college physician, the nurses and the members of the Department of Physical Education. General supervision is exercised to foster intelligent health habits in the lives of the students.

At the beginning of each year every student is required to take a medical examination. The appointment for this is made at the time of matriculation.

Other physicians and specialists may be consulted by students. Appointments with them must be made through the Infirmary in order that the campus health service can carry out its responsibility in regard to the health of the students.

Absence from academic work on account of illness must be excused by the physician or the nurse. Even slight illness must be reported to the nurse in order that the college may know that students are receiving proper care and that other students are protected from possible danger.

A student ill enough to be in bed is not allowed to remain in her residence hall, but is required to enter the Infirmary where she can be carefully supervised.
YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

OFFICERS FOR 1945-1946

Purpose

As the religious organization of the campus, a member of the national Y. W. C. A., and a participant in the World Student Christian Federation, the Young Women's Christian Association of Hollins College has as its aim to help each girl realize a full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God.

Membership being voluntary, at the beginning of the school year students select the committee on which they want to serve.

The Association membership is divided into five committees. The Religious Activities Committee arranges special services, and brings two or more outstanding speakers to campus each year. The Campus Activities Committee arranges all teas and entertainments sponsored by the Association. The projects of the Community Service Committee are many and varied. Teaching Sunday school, running a lunch room at the neighborhood negro school, and giving Christmas parties for both white and negro children are only a few of its activities. In addition are the Publicity and the Membership Committee.

In September the Association sponsors a party for all new students. Working with the Dramatic Board and the Choir, the Y. W. C. A. presents the annual White Gift Service on the last Sunday before Christmas vacation.

The Hollins Dramatic Association, of which all students are members, presents three plays a year. The Fall and Spring plays are given in the “Little Theater,” and the Commencement play is either in the Theater or the “Forest of Arden.”

Any student whose scholarship is satisfactory is eligible to “try out” for all of the plays given by the Association but may take part in only one play during a year.*

The Dramatic Board, composed of six officers and a faculty adviser, selects the plays, holds “try-outs,” and appoints, for each play, the chairman and members of the backstage committees. A student may serve on only one backstage committee a year.

*Exception: No first-year student is eligible for a part in the Fall play, but she may take part in the one-act “Freshman Plays” given early in the fall.

Ye Merrie Masquers

“Ye Merrie Masquers” is the honorary organization of dramatics. The basis for membership is a certain number of points awarded for participation in plays and backstage work, board membership and the writing of original plays.

“Ye Merrie Masquers” presents each year an original Christmas pageant.

Riding Club

The number of girls participating in recreational riding at Hollins has increased each year, and, consequently, the Riding Club has grown in size. Try-outs for membership in the club are held once during the year, eligibility being based on ability and interest. There are many delightful rides which may be taken over twenty miles of bridle paths. Picnics, breakfast and supper parties, moonlight rides, and a gymkhana are sponsored by the club during the year. In the spring the Riding Club presents its annual Horse Show in which qualified riders take part. At this time the champion rider is awarded a cup on which her name is engraved. This belongs to the Hollins College Riding Club, but the winner keeps a small replica cup which is given by the club. In honor of Mr. Joseph A. Turner, a memorial cup has been instituted to be presented annually, the winner of which will also keep a small replica cup. FREYA

Freya is the honorary organization of Hollins, which seeks to recognize achievement in college by choosing to membership those girls who have contributed to Hollins in one or more fields of activity and who are guided in all they do by a spirit of love for and fidelity to their Alma Mater. Freya was founded in 1903 by a group of Hollins girls who felt the need of some organization which should embody the high ideals by which they sought to live; that by union under the bond of common purpose, they might set these ideals as a standard of life of the noblest minded of Hollins girls; and in living day by day the principles which they acknowledged, might exert an influence for good, touching and uplifting all who came to live at Hollins. Though it has undergone many changes since that time, it still retains as a heritage from the past the legend of the Goddess Freya and still strives to achieve the loveliness which was Freya's nature for she was beautiful with the beauty which comes from a beautiful heart—hers was a spirit of purity, strength and, above all, love.

HOLLINS SONGS

The Green and the Gold

(Words by Phoebe Hunter, 1909. Music by Almah McConihay, 1911)

I.

O fair maiden Spring, what hue will you bring
To our cause from your own sunny sheen?
You have brought for your part the hue nearest your heart
And spread Hollins' hillsides with green.
And you, frosty Fall, the most brilliant of all,
What color for us do you hold?
You have laid your fair hand with its touch on our land
And set our trees flaming with gold.

II.

The Green and the Gold, we have loved it of old,
And to it we will ever be true.
For the memory will last of the days that are past,
And linger, dear Hollins, with you.
For life, when we're young, is a song that is sung,
And must pass as a tale that is told,
But honor and praise, to the end of our days,
We will render the Green and the Gold.

III.

And still at the thought of the good she has wrought,
Each heart must with gratitude thrill—
So to Hollins we'll sing till the mountainsides ring,
Our jewel of woodland and hill.
There are true, loyal friends that our college life lends,
And treasures of life manifold,
And may kind fortune bless with eternal success
Our Hollins, the Green and the Gold.

Founders' Day Hymn

(Words by Miss Loulie A. Snead. Music by Prof. Erich Rath)

I.

Where are the dreams of the dreamer?
Roseate they flashed in the dawn,
Instinct with promise of sunrise,
Of service to ages unborn.
Eager and restless and honest,
Daring, aspiring, and bright—
Where is the vision? 'Twas holy;
Can it be lost with the night?

II.

We are the dreams of the dreamer.
Think you his vision could fade?
Saw you his eyes as he journeyed?
Know you the price that he paid?
Ours the fruition of gladness,
Ours the light and the gleam—
Lifting our eyes to the mountains,
We, too, are dreaming a dream.

III.

Guard you the dreams of the dreamer,
Quiet the ways that he trod.
Held in its chalice of mountains,
Hollins lies open to God.
Simple and earnest and daring,
Friendly and quiet and true;
Such was the dream of our Founder,
Such was his ideal for you.
To Miss Matty
From the Class of 1931

(Words by Mary Adams Holmes. Music by Mary Belle Deaton)

It's little youth can know of sacrifice,
Of living for some high and radiant goal;
Our lives made up of broken, hurried days
Grasp not the rounded beauty of the whole.
Yet always, our Miss Matty, at your name,
Forgetful of our careless joy and tears,
We suddenly fall silent and our eyes
Are mazed by your brave challenge of the years.

To Miss Randolph
From the Class of 1938

(Words by Adelaide Smith. Music by Catherine Wright)

In these trees, strong with the years gone by,
In these white columns, ever straight and true,
These quiet hills against a quiet sky,
That sky itself, peace shadowed in its blue;
In this world within the hills where we at length
Love those things most for all they come to mean,
We find in you, Miss Randolph, all their strength,
Their depth and calm, eternal, changeless, and serene.

Hollins, Temple of Our Hearts
(Hollins Prize Song, 1926-1927)

I.
Hollins, temple of our hearts,
White thy slender pillars gleam,
As the golden light departs,
Casting shadows on the stream.
Soon upon their silver stalks
Stars will blossom in the night,
While the moon in beauty walks
Through her garden of delight.

II.
White as columns dimly seen
Down the tree-walled aisles of shade,
Clear as starlight's crystal sheen
Burns thy fire that shall not fade—
Altar fire of faith and trust
Shining through the somber years,
Kindled from the common dust
Of our mortal hopes and fears.

III.
We forever guard thy shrine,
Decked with lovely wreaths of mirth;
All our ardent youth is thine,
Thine the fragrance of the earth.
Every gift thou didst bestow
We shall offer thee again,
That thy stately walls may grow,
Treasured in the hearts of men.
Learning
(Words by Dorothy Sheffey Baldwin, '28. Music by William E. Haesche)

I.
Our moments haste with silver feet
To join the world's wide wand'ring ways
Where mirth and sorrow strangely meet
Beyond the calm of college days.
Though brief our path before us lies,
We know that Hollins makes us wise.

II.
We shall confront with equal truth
Our mortal weakness and our strength,
And offer hostage of our youth
To bring a clearer dawn at length,
For Hollins, like a beacon far,
Will lead where paths of honor are.

Hollins is Our Ideal
Hollins is our ideal,
Memory immortal,
Echo of golden days,
Through tradition's portal.
Soft her spirit is always bringing
Courage strong in its flight to me.
We will ever sing her praise;
Hollins is our ideal
Of the happiest days.

Return
(Alumnae Hymn)
(Words by Frances Stockley Lankford, 1930.
Music by Virginia Egolf Walters, 1929)
Unchanged are these dim hills, these quiet trees,
Unchanged each column, every mellowed wall
Where ancient ivy weaves its mysteries
Mutation leaves not any mark at all.
Only new faces tilt to the first star,
Fresh laughter echoes, other voices sing.
Our pain is mirrored in no slightest scar
Nor our delight by any shining thing.

For still blue Tinker's peaks are touched with dreams,
Still wisdom echoes in the whispered stir
Of trees we knew while silver and serene
The creek laughs where the wind is spiced with fir.
O, well remembered beauty heal anew
Whatever exiles may come home to you.
O, well remembered beauty heal anew
Whatever exiles may come home to you.
I Want to Go Back to Hollins Land

I want to go back to Hollins Land,
To Tinker Tea House, too,
Back to all the money I spend,
Back to all the clothes I lend,
I want to go back to Hollins Land,
Oh, take me back, oh, do!
For I want to go back,
I've got to go back to Hollins Land.

When you're away from Hollins Land,
You don't know what to do,
Nothing to spend your money for,
No one to shush you from the door;
When you're away from Hollins Land,
You're feeling awful blue,
'Cause you want to go back,
You've got to go back
To Hollins Land.

We Love You, Hollins College

We love you, Hollins College, with old Tinker standing guard.
We love you, Hollins College, may your spirit ne'er be marr'd.
Your colors ever call us, from afar we'll come to you,
For we love you, Hollins College, founded Eighteen Forty-Two.

H-o-l-l-i-n-s

H-o-l-l-i-n-s, Hollins, rah!
Our Hollins College, we'll sing to you,
Pride of Virginia's land,
We love you, yes, we do, dear Hollins,
Long may we cherish thee, love and adore,
Sing, praise and honor forevermore.

Oh, see those girls of Hollins,
All standing in a line,
And all of them are mighty, mighty fine;
They know just how to work there, they know just how to play,
Oh, Hollins girls, we'll cheer you every time.

Now Sweet Briar's not slow,
Randolph-Macon's on the go,
And Westhampton is mighty, mighty fine,
But give us, oh give us, oh how I wish you would,
Our dear old Hollins College every time.
