President Mitty Cocke entertained at a dinner Thursday evening, November 20th, at the Hotel Roanoke in honor of the Hollins Honor group. The guests and speaker of the evening was Stringfellow-Barr, Professor of History at the University of Virginia and editor of the Virginia Quarterly Review. About twenty-five students were present and an equal number of faculty members.

Mr. Estes Cocke, who was presiding, after an introductory and welcoming talk by Miss Cocke, spoke briefly of the place of the honor students in college and their responsibilities in maintaining high standards of scholarship.

Miss Sifer, representing the Faculty, spoke on the significance and responsibilities of an Honor group on a campus. These students, she said, should strive not for grades, but to attain knowledge, mental discipline and a critical attitude toward self.

Mr. Barr then spoke brilliantly and forcibly on the value of an American college has quickly to revolutionize, maintaining, said, what the college shall have to be, and what it is immeasurably boring to the one and mystifying to the other. What the college shall have to be, he continued, is that it adds creative attitude toward self. What the college shall have to be, he continued, is that it adds creative attitude toward self.

When Dr. Janney came here twelve years ago, he said, the best hockey of the season was displayed in this match. The game was hard fought from beginning to end. One of the best features was the excellent team-work of Cadbury and Kellogg on the Even forward line. Sorg, the Even goal-keeper, played her usual fine game. For the Odds, the work of the entire backfield and especially that of Locke and Speiden was splendid.

The game was scoreless during the first half, though the Odds threatened seriously to score on one occasion. During the second half the Even scored on a hard hit by Cadbury from the edge of the striking circle. Donovan, Even halfback, was injured in the second half and Moon was sent in in her place. The final whistle cut short a desperate rally by the Odds, and Evens assembled victorious over Odds by a score of 1-0.

On Wednesday afternoon, November 26th, the Odds took their “black cat” out of cold storage and the Even brushed up their ‘tiger’s” stripes for the annual hockey game. Staunch supporters of the Odds and Evens assembled on either side of the hockey field and a battle of music ensued. Strains of “Anybody Seen My Kitty?” mingled with “The Evens Had a Tiger.” Amid thundering applause the Evens team rolled on to the field in Mr. Hall’s “Blue Bus,” and the Odd team appeared in their customary pony cart (but alas and alack, the pony is with us no more, and the subs served in place of that gallant steed).

The game was called at 3:30 p.m. By far the best hockey of the season was displayed in this match. The game was hard fought from beginning to end. “Cargoes” Awarded Cup at Meeting of Association

Cargoes, the literary magazine of Hollins, tied with William and Mary for the first prize awarded the best magazine of the colleges in Virginia, at the meeting of the Virginia Inter-collegiate Press Association, Miss Merle Grubbs, present editor, was pleased to announce to the Student Body in Convocation, November 19th. The Association, which held its fourth annual meeting at Williamsburg, November 14th and 15th, during its four years of existence has been able to award Cargoes two prizes, one tie for first prize and a third prize, based entirely on the excellent merit of the magazine in comparison with those of other competing colleges throughout the State.

Miss Grubbs opened the Convocation by introducing the present staff to the Faculty and students. Following the announcement of the presentation of the cup, Dr. Janney, Faculty Advisor, pointed out to the students the value of such a magazine as Cargoes on campus.

“Primarily,” Dr. Janney stated, “it is a means of revealing the intelligence of Hollins girls to the world. Secondly, that it adds creative stimulus to a person’s intelligence and discipline of thought and, lastly, that contributions to it are of extreme value for recommendations for the girl who has graduated or left college.”

When Dr. Janney came here twelve years ago, eight issues of the magazine were being (continued on page three, column two)
 Hold Second Meeting of the Senior Forum

The second Senior Forum of the year was held November 15 in the chandeliered ballroom of the Y. W. C. A. room was quite festive with a hollidazed tree as its center of attraction run by the committee, who also had charge of the decorations.

The business of the afternoon began with a report of the official work of the year by Mary C. minutes were received from the Committee on College and Campus life and Miss Flathen told the students taken upon each member of the Forum. A letter from Mr. W. C. S. of Our Lives... to the next thought or the glimmerings thereof. There was no issue to stop rushing and humbly admit mistakes. It is almost classic remark of the philosopher Hannah Arendt: "We are often told that only the great will do great things."

The Forum is conducted by Dr. Alfred N. Frances Flather, who presided.

STUDENT FORUM

Now that the regular organization of fire drills has been thoroughly explored, may our students consider the possible effects of our versatility. And popular, what does it matter what gaps in our knowledge are there. Is there a real sense of life in the American college and really a parallelism in modern times for quietness, color and magnificence?

We are often told that only the great will do great things. But because the surfaces are attractive, it could be that the surfaces are attractive. It may be taken as an indication of the values of the usual maps. There was a hockey field on the top of the Hill. There were the books of hockey rules. The student of the year by the Hollins Student Association was presented by Mary Creech, Odd Captain, Miss Charlotte Strother, Odd Captain, Miss Charlotte Stuart, Odd Captain, Miss Mary Belle Duane, Odd Chairperson, Decorations, Distinguished Service, Miss Eleanor Bray, President, President's Club, President's Club, Presentation of Cup, Legion of Honor, Victory Parade, President's Cup.

The new road certainly is a pleasure, isn't it? What a luxury to be able to catch the good old 3:10 now instead of the 3:30, which was the 'best' of the two.

Now that the beauty section votes have been taken, everyone is wondering who's picture will appear in the annual—Every pretty girl who takes a trip to the photographer is under suspicion.

Last Thursday some girls slept, some studied, some went to the game, others went home, others on the rising trip, a large number went to dances, a few merely ate—judging from this list of varied occupations, God was thanked for many different things.

The various "men-about-campus" must be glad that the play is over and it is no longer necessary to dig out, from among the moth balls, clothes for the actors.

As a result of Dr. Jones' speech, those who have diamond rings are seeking lumps of radium in order to prove that the stones aren't glass.

Heard on the hockey field: "The Odds have an 'Even' chance to win the hockey." Nothing Odd about that.

The latest thing in Christmas presents has just arrived—or have you seen the new Hollins catalogs? Buy them for yourself and your friends. They can't help liking them.

The new shrubs and plants are making the garden lovely. It is a pleasure to walk there in the evenings.

Papers have sent one and all to the Library.
