Dear Mildred:

It was a pleasure meeting with you and Roshan while I was in New York, and I very much appreciated the time I spent with you and Matita at the Centre. The publications I brought back with me have been very useful and I found your Centre a tremendous resource.

On my return to Hawaii, I found an invitation to attend the Subregional Follow-up Meeting for Pacific Women on the World Conference of the UN, sponsored by ESCAP, which I attended in Suva recently. Several things emerged from this, including a recommendation to establish a Pacific Women's Resource Center. Although no mechanism was set up as a follow-up to this recommendation, it is possible that USP, in cooperation with ourselves, may assist in developing a proposal for such a center. If, indeed, this happens, I will keep you informed. When I receive the report of the meeting, I will send you a copy.

Have you made the selection for the U.S. Women's Mid-Decade Dialogue follow-up program? If so, I would appreciate knowing who was selected.

Again, it was a pleasure to meet you and I look forward to continuing our dialogue.

Kia Manuia,

Pamela
