FRESHMAN EXTRA!

Student Life HOLLINS WYTHEVILLE

VOLUME V

HOLLINS COLLEGE, SEPTEMBER 23, 1932, HOLLINS, VIRGINIA

JUNIOR PRESIDENT GREET'S FRESHMEN

The Juniors, your sister class, welcome you to Hollins. We hope that, from your first glimpse of Hollins until the time you say goodby, with a sheepskin under your arm, you will love it as we do.

Throughout the summer we have been genuinely interested in you and now that we have met you individually we are more delighted than ever to have you with us. In fact, we are as proud of our sister class as if each one of us were personally responsible for your arrival. But we like to think of you as our own responsibility as well as our pride and joy. If you are unhappy, therefore, we will be unhappy for we will feel that we have failed in helping you adjust yourself to college life. So we beg you to feel free to come to us with any problems whatsoever, for no matter how petty they may seem to you, your big sisters will appreciate the opportunity to help in any and every way.

Directions Given to Help Find Classrooms

Classrooms are located in five of the buildings on campus: The Library, West, East, Science Hall and Presser Hall. Under the Library two of the classrooms (105 and 107) are used for English and one for Bible (101). The two History classrooms (124 and 112) are on first floor West, while the French and Latin rooms (110, 117 and 109) are found on the first floor in second and third hall East. All classes in science meet in the Science Hall: Math on the first floor (102), Zoology (202) and Botany (207) on the second floor, and Chemistry and Physics (both in 302) on the third. In Presser Music Hall the two classrooms (209 and 211) open on the raised portion of the second floor. Physical Education classes meet, of course, in the Gymnasium.

Fifteen Freshmen have Elizabeth or a variation of Elizabeth in their names. Nine have Mary, and there are two Mary Elizabeths.

Hollins Cabin is Built and Dedicated

It is with pleasure that the Athletic Board announces the completion of the cabin, which has been a dream of many Hollins students and faculty members during the past years.

Last Sunday night the old girls, who were on campus, hiked to the cabin. They were its first visitors. Dinny Rath lit the first fire in the large homelike fireplace. While each person watched the flames eagerly and happily, the fire was dedicated to the many Hollins girls who had and still have a keen interest in the securing of a cabin for Hollins.

The cabin is within easy walking distance of the campus, so that every Hollins girl may enjoy the fun and sport of outing. It is situated on the Waldron farm about one and a half miles from the college. From this spot one obtains a beautiful view of the Shenandoah Valley and its ridges. The cabin will be for the use of the students and faculty during week-ends and will accommodate fifteen people at one time. Although the building of the cabin is completed, the furnishing has yet to be done. The grounds also have to be improved.

In order to have the cabin ready for use this fall, it was necessary for the Athletic Association to borrow three hundred dollars. Throughout this year different means will be used whereby this debt may be removed. The interest and cooperation of the students and faculty are desired. A more detailed account regarding the regulations of this asset will be published later.

MESSAGE TO '36

The issuing of a Freshman Extra of STUDENT LIFE is a new event in the history of this four-year-old publication. The staff has taken the step in the hope of establishing a precedent which will aid those of you who are just entering our Hollins community and at the same time present the newspaper as an integral part of campus life.

It is difficult when looking back to our own freshman year to recall exactly what details worried us, but if we can help relieve the confusion of the first few days, half our aim will be accomplished. You Freshmen will think of hundreds of things that might have further enlightened you, but if so we ask you to keep your ideas to pass on in the Freshman Extra for '37.

After being of service to you, however, we want to make you feel that STUDENT LIFE definitely belongs to you. It is run by students for the students without the help of a faculty advisor, and since your class is the largest in school, let it voice its view of campus problems by thoughtful articles and contributions to the newspaper. They may be handed in to a member of the staff at any time. There are many things that might be better or more easily accomplished than they are, so your ideas, unmediated by habit, may prove useful. The Student Forum, a column in the regular paper, is run solely as a medium of expression for such ideas.

By June, 1936, far in the future as it may seem, your class will have completed its impression on Hollins life. But in order to leave a record of which to be proud, it is up to each of you to start to work on it NOW!

Y. W. C. A. to Entertain In Honor of Freshmen

The Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, headed by Elizabeth Dawson, is making plans for a reception to be held in the Gymnasium at 8 P. M., Saturday evening. This annual occasion has always proved most enjoyable especially from the standpoint of becoming acquainted with the other girls in college.

The examination on the handbook and general knowledge of student government will be given at 1 P. M., Monday.

Freshman Questions Student Life Reporter

Reversing the usual order of the situation, a staff reporter answers questions rather than asks them. The following are typical of the questionnaires being put by many Freshmen.

- F.: When and where can I get my packages?
S. L. R.: A list of those who receive packages is posted on the bulletin board by the post-office door. They may be obtained before and after lunch just outside Kellar. Charles, the man who brings them, must be tipped five cents for each package.
- F.: Where are the Senior Tables in the dining room?
S. L. R.: They are in the center of the dining room just beyond the dome and no one sits at them except by invitation of a Senior. They may be distinguished by candles on them.
- F.: Are there any special points in dining room etiquette that might be new to a Freshman?
S. L. R.: In the first place, no one enters after the president's bell has been rung. Of course, students wait for faculty members to enter and come out the door, and no student occupies the faculty seat at the head of the table. If a student wishes to speak to someone at another table she asks permission of the head of that table.
- F.: Is it permissible to wear shorts or socks for athletics or hikes such as Tinker Day?
S. L. R.: No.
- F.: Why isn't purple worn on Tuesday or Tinker Day?
S. L. R.: Because it is the privilege only of the society of A. D. A. to do so.
- F.: Is there any rule against chewing gum in classes?
S. L. R.: No, but student opinion and good taste forbid it in classes, on the athletic field and in chapel.
- F.: How is courtesy shown the president at group gatherings?
S. L. R.: The student body rises whenever she enters the Little Theatre.
- F.: Is everyone supposed to join the Seniors when they serenade someone in the dining room?
S. L. R.: Yes, everyone is expected to join in and make the song as hearty as possible.

KAY MANN SPEAKS TO CLASS OF '36

Once again Hollins welcomes a new class with the same spirit of friendliness and eagerness to help which characterizes our campus life. Happy as we are to have the old girls return, it is to the class of 1936 that we look to give fresh thought and impetus to our academic and social life. We look with a certain envy to the clear road which lies ahead of you, seeing upon looking back, the rough spots and blind lanes which might have been avoided by maturer judgment and action. Because we are thinking of the future which you shall help to build, we hope that you will further develop and use that mature judgment and sense of self-responsibility which becomes the college woman. We wish you success and happiness in the many things which you will undertake and are looking forward to those things which we shall do together.

Athletic Board Sponsors Hike for the Freshmen

The Athletic Board welcomes all the new Hollins girls and desires to show them what real fun hiking and outing are among these hills of Virginia. There will be a hike for them this Friday afternoon at 4:30. Wear comfortable oxfords (not new ones) and an old sport dress. The hike will not be too long for any girl, for the destination will be the new cabin about one and a half miles from college. The entire Athletic Board is anxious to meet and know each one of you and to show you the new cabin. Don't forget to meet promptly at 4:30, Friday, on the back steps of Main building.

There was a group leader who knew Her handbook as all good girls do. She was asked quite abrupt When eight weeks were up And replied, "After eight weeks are thru!"
