Hollins College, "Hollins Student Life (1932 Nov 5)" (1932). Hollins Student Newspapers. 72.
https://digitalcommons.hollins.edu/newspapers/72

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Hollins Student Newspapers at Hollins Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Hollins Student Newspapers by an authorized administrator of Hollins Digital Commons. For more information, please contact kenkeltg@hollins.edu.
Halloween's night has come and gone, but never forget it. It is very true to say that the Senior actors were the best performers during that day at Hollins, but it is never-the-less true. The show was by far the best of the season in my opinion. It was the favorite, was not surprising, yet was the most entertaining, and wins the applause of the audience.

Money was recklessly wasted by individuals throughout the school, and the amount to be raised will be very significant. The show was by far the best of the season in my opinion. It was the favorite, was not surprising, yet was the most entertaining, and wins the applause of the audience.

The fourth act was positively heart-warming. The audience was reduced to tears at the largely due to the constructive work of the school. The show was by far the best of the season in my opinion. It was the favorite, was not surprising, yet was the most entertaining, and wins the applause of the audience.

To pick the star of an all-star cast is a difficult task. The audience was reduced to tears at the largely due to the constructive work of the school. The show was by far the best of the season in my opinion. It was the favorite, was not surprising, yet was the most entertaining, and wins the applause of the audience.

Dr. Colleen Anderson discussed Current Events during the convocation hour on Wednesday evening. In particular she talked of the current event, which seemed to be the most interesting. She talked of that current event, which seemed to be the most interesting.

The press tributes appear to be significant.

Dr. Colleen Anderson discussed Current Events during the convocation hour on Wednesday evening. In particular she talked of the current event, which seemed to be the most interesting. She talked of that current event, which seemed to be the most interesting.

The press tributes appear to be significant.

The press tributes appear to be significant.

The press tributes appear to be significant.

The press tributes appear to be significant.

The press tributes appear to be significant.

The press tributes appear to be significant.

The press tributes appear to be significant.

The press tributes appear to be significant.

The press tributes appear to be significant.
The Tea is Held for Triangular Chapter
Miss Kathryn sophisticatedly organized the Tea for the Triangular Chapter. Miss Kathryn, Miss Dorothy Tinker, President of the Triangular Chapter, Miss Mary Duke, Miss Dorothy Rogers, Miss Amanda Bell and Miss Elizabeth Hinks arrived at the Chaplin House at 4:30 to have the Tea, which was beautifully decorated. A delicious tea was served and the Tea was enjoyed by all who were present.

The International Club Spoke for Two Spokesmen
The International Club addressed the students on China given by Mr. W. H. Anderson. Mr. Anderson is a native of China and is a student of the State University. He has been in China for four years and is well versed in the language and customs of the country.

Students from Washington and Lee University were invited by Mr. Anderson to visit China and they accepted the invitation. Mr. Anderson spoke about the history of China and its culture. He also talked about the economic and social conditions of the country.

Lecture on China Given by Mr. W. H. Anderson

ALUMNAE NEWS

Dorothy R. Tinkham is the new president of the alumnae association of the Hollins. Miss Tinkham is a graduate of the University of Virginia and is well known in the alumnae circle. She will work hard to promote the interests of the alumnae and to strengthen the bond between the alumnae and the University.

The Effectiveness of the Red Cross

The Red Cross is an organization that helps during times of crisis. It is a non-profit organization that provides humanitarian aid in areas affected by natural disasters or conflicts. The Red Cross works to save lives, alleviate suffering, and promote health in the communities it serves.

GALAXY FOR GLASSES

The Galaxys are holding a sale for glasses. They are offering a wide variety of glasses at reasonable prices. The sale is going on now and will continue until May 1st. Come and check out the selection of glasses today!

For more information, contact the Galaxys at 555-1234.
Jane Moon was the weekend guest of Dorothy Donovan at Clifton Forge, Virginia.

Betty Marshall visited Madeleine Dalton at her home in Virginia last weekend. They attended the V. P. I. Kentucky football game in Blacksburg, Saturday.

Barbara Del Simms, Susie Cocke and Susanna Turner attended the German Club dance in Roanoke Friday night, overlooking eighty-eight.

Emy Lou Wilson, Nell Burton and Ann Harlan went to Homecoming dances at the University of Virginia last weekend.

Nancy Nixon, Barbara Del Simmons, June Clinton, Adelaide Rosales, Jean Bird and Lois Pratt were guests at Eleanor Wood at Washington and Lee last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Pease were at Hollins recently to see their daughter, Frances.

Mrs. J. H. McGinnis was at Hollins visiting her granddaughter, Marion Hamilton.

Juliette Gentle was the weekend guest of Sara Gilliam in Lynchburg, Virginia.

John Wordsham and "Cotton" Landrum visited Sara Woshum last weekend.

Hattie Futenby spent the weekend at her home in Lebanon, North Carolina.

Mrs. Joseph Walker was on campus recently to see her daughter, Marion.

Rachel Johnson attended the dance, and the football game at Chapel Hill Saturday, last weekend.

Marion Walker, Sarah Woshum, Ann Hart, "Beaver" Weaver, Elizabeth Hardock, Marianna Nettleton, Louise Tompkins and May Becher attended the V. P. I. Kentucky football game in Blacksburg, Virginia last Saturday.

Louise Spurrer spent the weekend with Evelyn Woody in Roanoke, Virginia.

Marianna Nettleton visited her relatives Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nettleton in Covington, Virginia.

Miss Amalia Tompkins was on campus last weekend visiting her niece, Louise Tompkins.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Patrick and Miss Elizabeth Patrick were at Hollins to see Archie, whom they took to Radford, Virginia, where she spent the weekend with Sue Tykes.

Susie Crowell was the weekend guest of her uncle, Mr. A. Crowell, at Salad, Virginia.

Virginia Harrison spent the weekend at her home in Wytheville, Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bots were on campus recently, visiting their daughter, Jane.

Ted Tibbitt, Mary Creech, Charlotte Thomas, Lois Jones, Rosena Lucas and Betty Taylor were on campus for Hollins'.