ONESEARCH TO DISCOVER THEM ALL, ONESEARCH TO REFINE THEM, ONESEARCH TO COMPILE THEM ALL, & IN THE LIBRARY FIND THEM

OneSearch has arrived! You no longer need to search separately for print and electronic materials – with OneSearch you can search for books, articles, films, and more from a single search box. OneSearch is on the library homepage and will instantly connect you with all of our resources. This system is new to everyone, so we have a few tips to get you started:

- Overwhelmed by results?
  - ◇ Use the dropdown box next to the search bar to limit your results to books (which still includes titles from Roanoke College), articles, films, or course reserves.
  - ◇ Select filters on the left-side of the results page to narrow down your results.
- You should sign-in on the results page each time you use OneSearch. This will allow you to request books from Roanoke College and it will give you access to all of our materials.
- Still want to search your favorite databases?
  - ◇ For in-depth research you may find it's easier to search subject-specific databases. Click on "Articles & Databases" on our homepage to access our 140+ databases.

Questions or comments? We are happy to help you learn to use OneSearch and we need your feedback to improve our services. Please visit us at the reference desk, email us at askref@hollins.edu, chat with us online, or call us at 362.7465.

NEWLY DIGITIZED: SPINSTER AND INSIDE HOLLINS

The library is excited to announce that we have two new collections in Hollins Digital Commons. The Spinster and Inside Hollins give you a unique look into the culture at Hollins throughout its history. Here's a bit more about each:

- One of Hollins most well-know publications, the Spinster was the Hollins yearbook published between 1898-2013 and again in 2016. The complete collection is available at digitalcommons.hollins.edu/spinster/.
- Inside Hollins was published from about 1940 to 1990, and served as a guide to campus life, traditions, and more for new students — one that often took on a humorous and somewhat cheeky tone in its earlier years, before it became an official publication. The library digitized 27 editions that will be available by the end of September at digitalcommons.hollins.edu/insideh.

Both the Spinster and Inside Hollins will also appear in OneSearch results. Questions about these collections or want to know more about Hollins Digital Commons? Please contact Taylor Kenkel, Technical Services Librarian, at kenkeltg@hollins.edu.

ENTERTAINMENT INDUSTRY MAGAZINE ARCHIVE

Need to find out the who, what, when and where of Hollywood since 1905? The Entertainment Industry Magazine Archive is your new best friend! This database covers various aspects of film and television in the US and UK through 10 industry magazines from 1905-2000. Publications include Variety, Boxoffice, Picturegoer and more.

Articles from the EIMA will appear in OneSearch. If you would like to search the database directly, go to the library homepage, select "Articles & Databases" in the "Find" section, then use the alphabetical listing.

EXHIBIT: BEFORE CHARLOTTESVILLE

Last year, one way the library affirmed its commitment to amplifying marginalized voices and histories was through our year-long exhibit series THIS IS HOW. Our newest exhibit, Before Charlottesville, continues that conversation through a different lens. By highlighting works on racism and white supremacy, we encourage everyone in our community to continue to learn more about structural racism and our national history. Every title is available for checkout.

Our exhibits are designed to supplement or highlight conversations that are happening on campus and on a larger scale. This exhibit supports the work already being done in the classroom, by the Heritage Committee, through Sustained Dialogue, and beyond.

FIRST-YEAR INTERNSHIP

Are you a first-year student who wants to become a librarian? Or maybe you just love libraries and want to learn more about working in academia? We created an internship specifically for you! This January the library will offer our first J-Term internship for first-year students. This internship will give you the opportunity to learn about different types of librarianship and can be geared towards your specific interests.

Interns will have the opportunity to work in some or all of these areas:

- Collection Development
- Digital Collections
- Outreach
- User Experience
- Instruction

To learn more about the library, you can go read our Mission Statement and Fundamental Commitments at library.hollins.edu/mission. To learn more about applying for internships, please contact Career Services at cdc@hollins.edu.

NEW COFFEE SHOP HOURS

You can now grab a coffee before your evening classes! Greenberry's Coffee at the library will be open the following hours during the fall semester:

Sunday—Thursday: 5:30 – 9:30 pm

Remember, you must use your Hollins Dollars or your credit/debit card at Greenberry's. No cash is accepted at the library location.
