FRESHMAN EXTRA!

Welcome to '37 from "Student Life"

To the Freshmen and Transfers STUDENT LIFE dedicates this, the first issue of 1933-34. We welcome you with pleasure as you come to make Hollins your college. We hope that here you will gain both happiness and knowledge from your work and play.

Hollins has much to offer you; you have much to offer Hollins. The fruits of these mutual possibilities will be reaped only by common understanding and effort. The college organizations, as the media of student creativeness, seek your interest and talent. STUDENT LIFE, as the campus newspaper, belongs to you. It will strive to express your wishes and opinions as well as to bring you the current campus news. Its success is measured in terms of service to the students as representatives of Hollins. It, therefore, asks your cooperation and interest and pledges itself to your service.

STUDENT LIFE again welcomes you heartily to Hollins. May you find here all that you seek in college.

Reporter Answers Freshman Questions

The following are typical questions and answers heard on all sides to-day as new students try to "catch on" to campus customs.

Q. How can I get my trunk?

A. Take your trunk check to Miss Barry in the business office. She will have the trunk sent here from the station and it will be put on the far end of West Building porch. When you find it there you give the number of your room and building to the man in charge and pay him fifty cents for transfer charges. Trunks sent by express are put on the porch outside the business office. You go to the post office, give your room number and building, and pay fifty cents. The trunk will be delivered to your room.

Q. What time are meals served?

A. The regular schedule begins Saturday. The triangle rings for breakfast at 7:30, for lunch at 12:15, and for dinner at 6:00. Fifteen minutes before these hours a warning triangle is rung. Five minutes after the last triangle the President's bell rings and after that one does not enter the dining room.

Q. Where do we sit in the dining room?

A. Anywhere except at faculty tables. You go to Senior tables, however, only at the invitation of a Senior. These tables are distinguished by candles. Always leave the seat at the head of the table empty for the teacher at whose table you may be sitting.

Q. Do we join in singing in the dining room?

A. Yes. The Seniors start the songs and everyone joins in.

Q. How can I get packages?

A. A "package list," a list of all those who have packages, is posted each morning on the bulletin board inside the post-office door. If your name is on the list you go to the post office and claim your package.

Q. Can we wear shorts or socks for sports or hikes such as Tinker Day?

A. No.

Q. Is there any rule against chewing gum in classes?

Group Leaders to Hold Meetings

Returning early to greet the new students, nineteen upperclassmen are on campus to lead group meetings and help in orientation. These group leaders convened last Saturday to discuss campus questions, with particular emphasis on freshman problems.

Group meetings will be held throughout the week for the purpose of acquainting new students with the system of government under which they will live. The group leaders are anxious to make Hollins traditions, customs and opportunities known to all students and to answer any and all questions relative to school life. New students are urged to confer freely with faculty members and group leaders on any matters that may puzzle them.

Hours of group meetings will be announced from time to time by the individual group leaders. The meetings will continue until the group members have become thoroughly familiar with the student government regulations. Upon the recommendation of the group leaders that they are cognizant with both the letter and the spirit of the college regulations, new students will be asked to sign the student government pledge.

Group leaders are: Jane Plitt, Margaret Smith, Evelyn Greecer, Sara Gilliam, Helen Stephenson, Dorothy Donovan, Jane Moon, Eleanor Webb, Lillian Burns, Mary Fletcher, Adria Kellogg, Clair Backs, Abby Castle, Marion Hamilton, Carol Faulkner, Mary Anna Nettleton, Dorothy Spencer and Susanna Turner.

A. No, but student opinion and good taste forbid it in classes, chapel and the library.

Q. What time does the mail come in and go out?

A. It arrives in the morning around 9:00 o'clock and goes out at 7:15 a. m. and 3:00 p. m.

Q. Why isn't purple worn on Tuesdays or on Tinker Day?

A. Because it is the privilege of the Society of A. D. A. to do so.

Q. What time do buses run to Roanoke?

A. Special college buses run if enough girls sign up for them on the bus list at the Bulletin Board. A regular schedule for road buses is posted in the Business Office.

Junior Message to Sister Class

To you, the Freshmen, our "little sisters," the Juniors extend the heartiest of welcomes, and the hope that your college contacts will be both enjoyable and profitable. This lies within the power of the individual, and your college career will be no more than you choose to make it. To realize the fullness of your life at Hollins, you must show a certain amount of versatility in your various pursuits. Rigorous self application and perseverance will overcome the abruptness of the change from secondary school to college.

At the very beginning you must realize that there are customs which you will observe and traditions to which you will live up. You are already familiar with the fact that Hollins is rich in tradition. Now it falls upon your shoulders as a class to help perpetuate these and to contribute your part in the building up of your college. You can do much for Hollins, and Hollins in turn will do more for you, provided, of course, that you accept your responsibilities without evasion.

Do not lose sight of the fact that extra-curricular activities contribute much to a well-rounded college career. You owe it to yourself and to your school, too, to use whatever talents you possess and to engage in the various activities of the campus.

The Juniors assure you of their cooperation, support and trust. We believe that '37 will be an exceptional class.

Y. W. C. A. to Give Annual Reception

Opening the college social calendar, the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet will be hostesses to the student body at the annual get-together party Saturday night in the gymnasium. Everyone is invited to attend and each new student will be escorted by an old girl. Dancing will form the chief feature of the evening.

A more detailed program for the party will be announced later in the week.

The destination of many walks and hikes this week will be the Hollins Cabin, as the Athletic Board members open it for inspection by new students. The Cabin, which is located at a convenient walking distance from campus, is open throughout the year for picnics and weekend parties by the students.

Mid Raynolds Greets Class of '37

Hollins welcomes its Freshmen. We, both students and faculty, are proud to number you among our friends. We are eager to tender you the key to those things which makes Hollins dear to us. We wish that you may find here the joys which we have known.

At the same time we are looking to you with hope. You are the sculptors of the future. All that we hope to do, all that has been done, will pass through your hands. If your fingers are indifferent, all our hopes and efforts may be broken into bits. If, however, your hands are eager and creative the future may be moulded into beautiful forms. We are confident as to which course you will take.

We wish you the best of success and happiness in everything and we are looking forward to the many things we shall do together.

Directions for Finding Classrooms

Realizing the lost feeling that will come over you when you try to find your classes and classrooms for the first time, we give the following list of classrooms in the hope that it will help you.

Classrooms are located in the Library, West, East, Science Hall and Presser Hall. Under the Library two of the classrooms, 105 and 107, are used for English and one for Bible, 101. The two History classrooms, 124 and 112, are on first floor West. On the first floor of second and third halls in East are found the French and Latin rooms, 110, 117 and 109. All classes in Science meet in the Science Hall. Mathematics meets on the first floor, Zoölogy in 202 and Botany in 207 on the second floor, and Chemistry and Physics both meet on the third floor in 302. In Presser Hall the two Music classrooms open on the raised portion of the second floor. All physical education classes meet in the gymnasium or on the sports fields as directed at the first meeting of the class.

*There was a group leader who knew
Her handbook as all good girls do.
She was asked quite abrupt
When eight weeks were up
And replied, "After eight weeks are through!"*
