Stressing the responsibility of the individual girl for the total success of the College Dance in December, Emily Plum­mer, Junior Class President, presented the plans for the affair to the student body and Student Government meeting on Tues­day night. She pointed out that, although the Juniors are sponsoring the dance, it is a College project and should be sup­ported by each girl, by contributing her skills and time, and by paying the regular admission fees to the College. The admission fee set by the Student Government for the December dance is $0.15. Gifts of $2.00 or more are being solicited from sponsors, and all girls are urged to sell tickets.

John Denom, managing editor of The Richmond, announced that he had arranged with the Associated Press for publication of The Richmond magazine, the monthly publication of the Star­town College, in The Richmond for December. This will be the first time that the magazine has been published in a publica­tion outside of the Star­town college. The magazine will be available in the College offices, and at the Student Union.

The orchestra for the dance has not yet been chosen, due to the fact that several have still to submit their bids. Carol Faulkner, Chair­man of Special Events, and Miss Hurd, member of the Executive Committee, are co­ordinating efforts to attract a group of talented musicians to the dance.

At the close of her talk Miss Stephen­son announced, for the first time in the history of the Organization of Freya, the names of the new members. They are: Emily Plummer, Carol Faulkner, and S. M. Brumbaugh. Miss Stephen­son read the list of requirements which were later posted on the bulletin board, and then summer­ized them under the headings of scholarship, leadership, and creative ability.

On October 16th, in the Green Drawing­Room and after greeting the college guests, at a later date definite plans for the affair to the student body and Faculty will be announced.

Many Guests Invited to Meet President

Honor­ing President Randolph, the Hollins Board of Trustees will give a reception at the College on Friday even­ing, November 24th, from eight to eleven. Friends, parents and alumnae from Roanoke, the county, Salem and nearby regions have been invited. The student body and faculty will attend and will be asked to aid in entertaining the college guests. In addition to the large group of visitors and the invited guests, members of the Student Government and the Junior Class have been invited to attend the dance.

Students and Faculty Enjoy Hallowe’en Banquet and Stunt

Preceding the delightful Hallowe’en banquet on Saturday night before Hallowe’en, the faculty gave a cabaret stunt which was well attended. The songs that were immortalized in these stunts were the day of the Odj and Even hockey founder, Dean’s Day and May Day and Commencement. The stunts were given in this form and were appropriate in every case.

Following the banquet at seven o’clock, the Sophomores gave a play verving on their costume line and also管线, including the “old hometown.” The name of the play was Hallowe’en is the Best Policy. The end took a happy turn when Peg Clark, as the hero, saved Bo Bele from the sisters, visited with Mary Helen Hirschfield. No words can express the happiness of the mother, Florence Shelley, at this opportunity rescue.

The Kelly was decorated by the Freshmen with yellow and black streamers and other decorations. The Freshmen also decorated the dining room.
