CURRICULUM COMMITTEE REPORTS TO FACULTY
SAYS HONORS WORK NOT ADVISABLE

Representing a student investigation of the courses now offered or desirable on campus, the student curriculum committee submitted a report to the corresponding faculty committee for consideration before definite action was taken on curricular plans for next year. The committee, composed of Mary Fletcher, chairwoman, with Sara Gilliam, Louise Harrison, Mary Anna Nettleton, Jane Plumb, and Jean Staples, studied the conditions now existing on campus and made a few general suggestions before presenting the definite course plans.

In the view of the committee it was not thought advisable to adopt Honors Courses similar to those at Swarthmore for Hollins at this time, due to the fact that they did not consider the student body ready for such work yet and because of the additional expense to the college involved. Desiring, however, a course which would lead to more independent, thorough, and mature work they suggested that a system unique to Hollins be developed. Steps in the development of a system of this type were taken in the group majoring in pure sciences, social sciences, and humanities) as opposed to the pure sciences.

EMERSON OBSERVES HOLLINS DAY AT STORES

ENDOWMENT TO GET SALES PERCENTAGE

Starting a series of "Hollins Days," H. Emerson will contribute a percentage of the sales made in Roanoke stores to-morrow to the Hollins Student Life Endowment Fund. He has been especially decorated for the day with Hollins colors and displays of Hollins pictures and scenes and will be made in different parts of the stores. Students will serve as hostesses to greet the friends of the College as they come to the store. This plan of a college day has been observed in many of the large northern cities for its local colleges and has served to make clearer relations as well as mutual contributions between Hollins and other colleges.

The plan provides for a certain percentage of the day's purchases made by students, faculty, administration, alums and employees to be contributed to the corresponding Endowment Fund of the College. Many decorative features centering around Hollins have been designed for the Emerson observance and every courtesy and convenience will be extended as usual on these days to the friends of the College. If the plan is a success it will be considered for future expansion. Every member of the College is urged to join in to make this day a success by her visit to the stores or by her patronage.

"Quality Street" to be Presented To-Morrow

Preparing for the presentation of Quality Street Saturday night, the cast, assisted by the Fine Arts Department, will offer a major in musical performance...
Hollins Student Life

Order is chaos if it is being organized, and the same is true of the Student Forum. It is the place where the students come to organize their thoughts and discuss their ideas. It is a place where they can bring up any topic of interest and have a chance to be heard. It is also a place where the students can come together to plan events and activities. The Student Forum is a vital part of the Hollins community and is an important aspect of the student experience.

Reds Give Third Defeat in Row to Blues

VARiTY TEAM members NAMED

Led by a couple of speedy and accurate shooting forwards the Yemassee, Miss Creagh named her varsity team, to the delight of the home fans, defeated the annual Yemassee-Mohican basketball game. The final score was 39-15.

The game was very exciting, not as one-sided as the score would indicate. In the first quarter the teams looked pretty even matched but as the game progressed the Reds gradually wore down their opponents, due to their superior speed. Then in the final quarter the Yemassee stepped in and piled up a huge score.

It was a thrilling night for Miss Creagh fans. A crowd of Reds really won them the victory by such a large margin. Time after time the Reds unleashed speedy attacks which left the Blacks flattened. The Yemassee spent the first half wearing out their opponents, and then in the closing minutes ran wild with the score.

Despite the fact that the game was fast and hard fought it was unusually free from fouls. Fewer fouls were called in the game than any of the 39 games to date.

In the first half the cheerleaders, Evelyn Greer and Baha Weaver, showed a lot of credit for leading their cheering sections so enthusiastically.

The Red-Blue banquet was held in the dining room annex Saturday night after the game. Bobbie Flint Burton, 28, former Blue, presided as Toast Mistress.

She read several telegrams from alumni and presented the basketball cup to Ada Kellogg as Captain of the Reds. Miss Creagh then announced the varsity basketball team for 1934 as follows:

Forwards: Anna Hempstead and Margaret Winfrey.
Centers: Ada Kellogg and Ben Lane.

Guards: Lib Williams and Louise King.

Miss Creagh, of Westhampton, the referee, was introduced and made a few remarks on the game and basketball in Virginia. The banquet brought the official season one step closer to a close for 1934.

The downstairs area of the Grand Stand was left free for students and faculty members.
