Ruth, Weaver, Fletcher to Edit Campus Publications Next Year

Other Organization and Class Heads Elected

ELECTIONS CONTINUE

Kitty Ruth has been appointed to serve as Editor-in-Chief of the Student Life for 1934-1935. Miss Ruth has served on the staff this year and her work in all departments of the paper has been consistently praiseworthy. She will take over her duties with the next issue of Student Life.

A new staff organization will be instituted with the next issue also. The present arrangement of the staff has been changed because it was thought too much responsibility and work devolved upon the editor-in-chief and the other staff members were not given enough experience in the various fields of the paper. The new set-up provides for four associate editors and three departments under the management of a department editor. Kitty Ruth will work under the department for which they are best equipped and in which they are most interested. This system will give the outgoing staff that the new arrangement will result in a well distributed staff and high quality publication.

Winnie Weaver and Charlotte Fletcher have been named to the Dramatic Board and have been thoroughly familiar with the type of work required for the position they will hold. Miss Fletcher has been a long-time Editor of the Student Life this year and has at the same time been an outstanding contributor to "Cargoes." Her training in editorial work on the newspaper fits her for the job of editor-in-chief. Ability and discrimination have been evidenced in every issue of "Cargoes" this year. Miss Fletcher has been a Business Manager for the "Spinsters." Winnie Weaver and Charlotte Fletcher in this capacity.

Staff nominees for the new election have been filled by elections held throughout the week. Harriet Ann Jackson was elected President of the Dramatic Association for this year and has been thoroughly familiar with the type of work required for the position.

Senior representative to Executive Council is to be Kitty Ruth. She will have the duty of representing the Dramatic Association in a large part, provided for by other agencies in the past several years and the need for such a commission has therefore arisen.

Actual changes proposed in the constitution are as follows:

Article V—Departments

Section I. In addition to the officers of the Association, the cabinet shall consist of one representative of each of the four classes. Upon their installation in the April term the cabinet shall nominate two girls from the three classes and their names shall be voted upon by the respective classes.

The representatives from the freshmen class shall be selected in a like manner at the time of the President's installation in November.

Section II. The business of the association may be carried on by committees; the president shall designate a member of the cabinet as head of a project and that member will be responsible for carrying it through.

A. These projects shall include:

1. Religious meetings, both on Sunday and weekdays, held as often as the student body desires.
2. Interclass activities.
3. Social.
4. Publicity.
5. Social Service.

Constitutional Changes Proposed by Council

Proposed changes in the Constitution of the Hollins Student Government Association were presented to the Student body for consideration by the Executive Council. The constitutional changes will be voted upon at the next meeting of the Student body and accepted, go into effect next spring.

Two of the changes concern officers of the Junior class and their duties. The office of President of the Hollins Student Government Association will be elected this year.

In regard to the change in selecting the President from the Senior Class, the Hollins College Student Government has been a leader in student representation. This year's event will be open to members of the Riding Club and to outside riders and mounts.

Faculty Clubs Hear Report on Honors Courses

Following the petition made by the Honors Course Committee, the faculty met in the Old Chapel last Monday evening to consider the resolutions made by the Committee and to hear the presentation made by the Committee on the course of study. The Faculty, after much discussion, decided to grant the Honors Course the status of a regular course at Hollins.

Edward Kane to Give Concert in Roanoke

Edward Kane, leader of the music department at the University of Virginia, will give a concert in Roanoke on Thursday evening, April 26th, at 8 o'clock. Mr. Kane will present a program of solo songs, accompanied by his own piano, and will be assisted in this presentation by Mrs. F. H. Fawcett, who will accompany him on the piano. The concert will be given in the Roanoke Chamber Music Festival, which is being held at this time.

Washington to Propose on Community Life

We come together in our community life. If they are orderly and get in a group and complain they are rushed and confused with carelessness and purposeless complaining. If they are not orderly and fail to study, that is good and well if we do study. But the purpose of study is not to complain but to learn. That is the purpose of study.

Managers

The editorials in this edition are in the form of a debate. In the debate, the editors present their views on a particular issue, and the audience is encouraged to participate by submitting their own opinions. The debate format allows for a variety of perspectives to be presented, and it provides an opportunity for the audience to engage in critical thinking and discussion.

Hollins Student Life

Every student body or Legislative body passes a number of regulations, which we wonder if we have to wait until the beginning of the next semester for the regulations which we are going to pass. The regulations are to be unnecessary waste of time, particularly when those new regulations would lead straight to the hollerin' of campus life. The folly that this day

Shall we make our own leisure?

Are we not all "comrades" in the real world of the present time? A few moments in a group of students would almost lead one to believe so. On all sides of this country there is a good deal of discussion about this, but it is the other thing with which we are associated every day. Why do we do this?

At the beginning of the school year there was a noticeable feeling of determining the reasons for the coming of the movement. Was it not just a real time of worship? If they are not orderly and get in a group and complain they are rushed and confused with carelessness and purposeless complaining. If they are not orderly and fail to study, that is good and well if we do study. But the purpose of study is not to complain but to learn. That is the purpose of study.

Dressing for Dinner

About a year ago the Junior council undertook to improve the generallyapplauded Dining Room situation over the week-ends. The committee assigned to this work was not very successful, but they did have the advantage of our fine committee and of the splendid cooperation of the students. The committee decided to put a definite and well-defined time for the opening of the Dining Room, and to have the students wear uniforms during this time. The uniforms were designed to be appropriate for dinner, and they were worn by all students.

Miss Em Lou Wilson will lead the ring figure at V. P. I. to-night. The first one of the day will be a V. P. I., and as such is the center of great interest. It will be held in the War Memorial Hall and will feature a saber arch beneath which the girls will pass after placing the rings on the fingers of the girls. Libby Angel’s orchestra will play for the dancing.

Other girls who will attend the dances at V. P. I. are Virginia Chinholm Cath-erine Conrey, E. G. Brown, and Margaret Markley.

Susie Cocke, Lib Williams, Peg Clark, Carol Paulkiner, Kitty Ruth, Virginia Dawidili, Carolyn Saunders, and Nell Forrest answered the Easter dances at University of Virginia.

Helen Stephenson, Ethlyn Greer, Kate Lewis, Beth Miller, Joyce Smith, Frances Smay, Ann Critch, Shirley Sizemore, Tish Nelson, Phoebe McClough-ery, Lexie Reynolds, Gus McCoy, Ann Kimmons and Courtesy West will attend the dances at V. M. I. this weekend.

Dr. Fritz Marti and Dorothy Storven will go to V. P. I. for the State Meeting of International Relations Clubs.

Libby Angel’s orchestra will attend the dances at Duke University this weekend.

Mildred Reynolds will spend the weekend at the University of Virginia.

Mrs. W. T. Wright will visit her daughter, Dorothy, on campus next week.

Constitutional Changes

Proposed by Co-council

The council, who are elected from the Junior Class, in cases where the opinion of the Senior Class is to be given the President of the School, will be divided into groups of six, with other students assigned to each group.

Firms or individuals applying for agencies on campus are now required to submit their requests to the executive council which acts upon them, but the new reading of the Constitution would provide for the appointment of a special committee from the Council to deal with agencies.

The change providing that the House Committees shall no longer impose penalties was made. The duties of the central body passing on penalties would be lighter to the cases being considered and would be more uniform across all penalties.

The changes as proposed are:

1. Page 11, Article VII, Section 1; to read:

"The officers of the Association serving for one year shall be: A President, elected from the incoming Senior Class; a Vice President, elected from the incoming Senior Class; a Treasurer, elected from the incoming Junior Class; a Secretary, elected from the incoming Junior Class; a Recorder, elected from the incoming Junior Class; a President, elected from the incoming Senior Class ...

2. Page 14, Article V, Section 11a, to read:

"The duties of the recorder shall be:

(a) To keep the complete and official record of officers held by members of the Association.

b. Page 15, Article V, Section III, B, 6, omitted.

c. Page 20, Article VIII, Insert Section X, to read:

"There shall be an Agencies Com- mittee.

A. This committee shall be composed of members appointed from the Executive Council.

B. The duty of this committee shall be to go on all agencies desiring to be on a place on campus after consultation with the Administration. The person or firm desiring an agency shall submit its request to this committee for approval."

The spring dance is a thing of the past with great credit going to the Sophomores for the efficient manner in which they carried out their plans for the dance.

The decorating committee under the leadership of Margot Carpis made the gym into a festive hallroom. The carpeting was covered with green, and the decorations of the side walls were adorned to this with varicolored artistic designs on a background of light green.

Dancing began at nine and continued until twelve o’clock. Two "no-break" dances honored the Sophomores and Senior Couples respectively, "Star Dust" and "I Love You Truly" were chosen as the pieces to be played for the Sophomore no-break while the Seniors chose "Paradise" for theirs. Refreshments were served during the intermissions in the small end rooms of the gym.

The Duke Colonels, an eleven-piece orchestra, is composed of Juniors at Duke University. They have been together since 1931 and have established for themselves an enviable record while playing at various proms throughout the South. The orchestra specializes in waltzes although they have written and presented a total of ten tunes. The band first formed when the present members were freshmen at Duke and has played together at many events.

The next three years, thus insuring a permanent feature as the group. The featured vocalists are with the band which carries its own electrical amplifying system thus bringing the music and singing to the dancers on all parts of the floor.

The receiving line formed in the Green Drawing Room and the guests proceeded to the gym for dancing. Dr. Randolph, Miss Matty, Miss Williamson, Miss Farnsworth, Miss Maddrey, Miss Virginia Wellington and Miss Peg Clay were in the receiving line.

Guests from Virginia Military Institute, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, University of Virginia, Washington and Lee, Princeton, Yale, Johns Hopkins, and numerous other schools attended the dance.

"As You Like It" Chosen for Commencement Play

that Shakespearean comedy has been chosen for production at Commencement, "A Midsummer Night’s Dream" which was presented last June, was received one of the best performances given by the organization in recent years.

Tryouts for the early part of this week and will continue until casting is completed. All students expecting to try for a role in the production are urged to read the play before coming to the try-outs which will be held in the Forest of Arden.

5. Page 19, Article VI, Section III, B, 1, omitted so that the duties of the House Committee shall no longer in- clude imposing penalties. Hereafter the Executive Council shall impose all penalties.

Katharine Cornell to Give Play in Roanoke

Katharine Cornell will appear in Roanoke in her presentation of "The Barretts of Win- dle Street" on Friday evening, May 4th.

Mr. Bolger Gives Recital in Winston-Salem, N. C.

Mr. Donald L. Bolger gave a recital last Friday at the Winston-Salem Woman’s Club. After an introduction by Jerry Garber, Mr. Bolger played a widely varied program including a Chopin Prelude and Rhapsody, two Chopin Waltzes, three compositions by Chopin, the Brahms G Minor Rhapsody, and a Landon and Mozart Rhapsody on the old school.

The program throughout, "says the Times City Sentinel, "was marked by a clear, full tone, and also by great dynamic breadth. His scale passages were flowing and liquid while his heavy chords were full but seldom hard. Added to his brilliant technique, the artist has a charming stage presence which was most pleasing to the audience."

Mr. Bolger gave this concert at the request of the Hollins Alumni Club of Winston-Salem.

Garber Receives Honor

During a recent contest sponsored by the Junior League of Winston-Salem, Mary Ellen Gerber was first prize. The object of the contest was to use seventeen words taken from the Arabian Knights in a coherent paragraph. Miss Garber submitted a paragraph and was awarded the first prize.
