PaineWebber

Dear A. B. Hopkins,

Reading your book was a highlight of my Yucatan experience - really well done; as surrounded by my companion who also lived through my similar experience (brought her to tears). I really came to know who you are as well as what you do. You were very fortunate re your legal people but I asked for the personal treasures layered through a hugely trying time.

As you so often gave thanks to Hishon, we felt much of our way was paved by Hopkins vs. PW. Coincidentally, those initials always registered Paine Webber during my reading. So thank you once more, La Stupenda!

Before too long I hope we can share a few beers and/or brandies. I am privileged to know a terrific lady.

Jesus

Contardo
