Dear Mrs. Persinger:

Many thanks for your letter of the 27th May, addressed to Dr. Dolatshahi, now the Honorary President of ICW. I am sorry that our reply has been so long delayed. We have just concluded the 21st Triennial Conference of ICW at Vancouver, when officers were elected or appointed for the forthcoming three years.

Since Mrs. Mary Craig Schuller has again been appointed ICW Liaison Officer at the United Nations, in charge of the work of the group of ICW Representatives in New York, we would hope that she would become a member of the Advisory Group to follow up activities to implement the Plan of Work adopted by the Conference held at Mexico City (1975) to mark IWY.

Since, as you will know, ICW is no longer a member of the Bureau of the NGO Conference, it is important to find other means for our officers to remain in constant touch with the action of our NGO colleagues. We thus appreciate your invitation to appoint Mrs. Schuller to the Advisory group.

I expect to be in New York during the forthcoming meeting of the Assembly of the United Nations, perhaps about mid-October, and shall look forward to meeting you and the Advisory Committee.

With best wishes for your work.

Yours sincerely,

Princess Prem Purachatra
President
