Dear Ann:

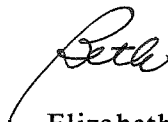

Congratulations on your latest victory in your on-going suit against Price Waterhouse. You must feel that the suit is a permanent part of your life.

I am just entering the appellate stage in my action against Xerox. Although I won a great victory with the jury ($9 million verdict), the judge granted a judgment n.o.v. with no damages.

I originally had hoped to get the promised job and get on with my life. Instead, I lost my job, was blacklisted in the industry and went back to school. I recently was sworn in as an attorney and have started a totally new career.

I wish you the best in whatever you undertake. Your fight has been an inspiration to me and many others.

Fondest Regards,

Elizabeth W. Layman
