Dear IWY State Coordinating Committee Chairperson,

Greetings and very best wishes for the success of your State Meeting on women.

The International Women's Year conferences and other events are still so vivid in the minds of those who participated that the continuing movement seems as vigorous as ever.

This momentum brought the IWY Tribune Project into being. It is attempting to respond to requests and to opportunities for promoting the goals of The International Decade For Women, now in its second year.

We have, therefore, been in touch with the IWY Secretariat in Washington and realize you may find the enclosed materials useful as you make plans for the "international dimension" at your state conference.

Our very best wishes for a meeting which will make things happen.

Sincerely,

Mildred E. Persinger
Chairman
IWY Tribune Project
