Two New Members Join

the Society of A. D. A.

The S. S. A. D. A., with Mr. David Windsor and Mrs. Wally Simpson arrived at the hotel of Keller Turner on December 15. In order to escape undesirably publication the famous couple was dispatched at Hone-Hedgess and Ann Wortoments, candidates for membership in the Society of A. D. A. While waiting for the boat to dock the couple got into a "royal" of their reception committee, which was headed by A. D. J.

Reifman, Wally Simpson's cousin in Balt-more. It seems that Edward is partial to Hindu dolls and rather Oxford sedan and did Simp "smell smoke" when she heard that; pers on all get over it and persons the so n't. They discussed and closed the entire committee, for when you are miles from home you are without Simp-thing to talk about? These two carried off their stunt in true A. D. A. style and were the epitome of the world. With it was with the full approval of their entire membership. It is, indeed, a happy
