in 1942, the one hundredth anniversary of a college whose history is unique in the annals of American education.

The main topic for discussion during this two-day period will be College Alumnae Relations, and the trustees, the administration, the faculty, and the alumnas, as well as present students, will participate therein. A member of the Board of Trustees will present the trustees' point of view, while Dr. Bessie C. Ran­don, of Wilmington, Delaware, who is chairman of the Board of Trustees, will be the main spokesman for the alumni. Kate Signal, president of the class of 1931, and Dr. Janney, member of the faculty, will present the students' angle. The morning session of the Council on Saturday, February 20, will be devoted exclusively to a general analysis of this theme.

The afternoon session will concern itself with specific ways in which alumnae may cooperate with the college in further development, improve its financial position, and increase its prestige. At this time, the centennial fund project will be presented by Janet Stirling, of New York City, will be in charge.

Dr. Donovan will give a series of four lectures on various aspects of the college's history, he is also a member of the Board of Trustees. The second day, Sunday, February 21, will be devoted to a general discussion of "The Challenge of the Administrative Officer," to which he will be presented by Janet Stirling, of New York City, will be in charge.

As a result of this increased interest in the college's history, he is also a member of the Board of Trustees. The second day, Sunday, February 21, will be devoted to a general discussion of "The Challenge of the Administrative Officer," to which he will be presented by Janet Stirling, of New York City, will be in charge.

The afternoon session will concern itself with specific ways in which alumnae may cooperate with the college in further development, improve its financial position, and increase its prestige. At this time, the centennial fund project will be presented by Janet Stirling, of New York City, will be in charge.

Dr. Donovan will give a series of four lectures on various aspects of the college's history, he is also a member of the Board of Trustees. The second day, Sunday, February 21, will be devoted to a general discussion of "The Challenge of the Administrative Officer," to which he will be presented by Janet Stirling, of New York City, will be in charge.

The afternoon session will concern itself with specific ways in which alumnae may cooperate with the college in further development, improve its financial position, and increase its prestige. At this time, the centennial fund project will be presented by Janet Stirling, of New York City, will be in charge.

Dr. Donovan will give a series of four lectures on various aspects of the college's history, he is also a member of the Board of Trustees. The second day, Sunday, February 21, will be devoted to a general discussion of "The Challenge of the Administrative Officer," to which he will be presented by Janet Stirling, of New York City, will be in charge.

The afternoon session will concern itself with specific ways in which alumnae may cooperate with the college in further development, improve its financial position, and increase its prestige. At this time, the centennial fund project will be presented by Janet Stirling, of New York City, will be in charge.

Dr. Donovan will give a series of four lectures on various aspects of the college's history, he is also a member of the Board of Trustees. The second day, Sunday, February 21, will be devoted to a general discussion of "The Challenge of the Administrative Officer," to which he will be presented by Janet Stirling, of New York City, will be in charge.

The afternoon session will concern itself with specific ways in which alumnae may cooperate with the college in further development, improve its financial position, and increase its prestige. At this time, the centennial fund project will be presented by Janet Stirling, of New York City, will be in charge.

Dr. Donovan will give a series of four lectures on various aspects of the college's history, he is also a member of the Board of Trustees. The second day, Sunday, February 21, will be devoted to a general discussion of "The Challenge of the Administrative Officer," to which he will be presented by Janet Stirling, of New York City, will be in charge.

The afternoon session will concern itself with specific ways in which alumnae may cooperate with the college in further development, improve its financial position, and increase its prestige. At this time, the centennial fund project will be presented by Janet Stirling, of New York City, will be in charge.

Dr. Donovan will give a series of four lectures on various aspects of the college's history, he is also a member of the Board of Trustees. The second day, Sunday, February 21, will be devoted to a general discussion of "The Challenge of the Administrative Officer," to which he will be presented by Janet Stirling, of New York City, will be in charge.

The afternoon session will concern itself with specific ways in which alumnae may cooperate with the college in further development, improve its financial position, and increase its prestige. At this time, the centennial fund project will be presented by Janet Stirling, of New York City, will be in charge.

Dr. Donovan will give a series of four lectures on various aspects of the college's history, he is also a member of the Board of Trustees. The second day, Sunday, February 21, will be devoted to a general discussion of "The Challenge of the Administrative Officer," to which he will be presented by Janet Stirling, of New York City, will be in charge.

The afternoon session will concern itself with specific ways in which alumnae may cooperate with the college in further development, improve its financial position, and increase its prestige. At this time, the centennial fund project will be presented by Janet Stirling, of New York City, will be in charge.

Dr. Donovan will give a series of four lectures on various aspects of the college's history, he is also a member of the Board of Trustees. The second day, Sunday, February 21, will be devoted to a general discussion of "The Challenge of the Administrative Officer," to which he will be presented by Janet Stirling, of New York City, will be in charge.

The afternoon session will concern itself with specific ways in which alumnae may cooperate with the college in further development, improve its financial position, and increase its prestige. At this time, the centennial fund project will be presented by Janet Stirling, of New York City, will be in charge.
Hollins Student Life
Published biweekly during the college year
by a staff composed entirely of students

THE STAFF

Editor-in-Chief
Margaret E. Bledsoe

Calculation Editors
Charles L. Boyce
Barbara H. Mowbray

Assistant Editors
Susan R. St. John
David F. Worthington

Business Manager
Charles D. Smith

Circulation Manager
Barbara H. Mowbray

REPORTERS

Wesley Grimes
Elliott H. Haskins

THE 1967-68 Associated Press

Chairmen of Associated Press

Why Don’t You Read?
University of Virginia Offers Forum in Roanoke

The Baccalaureate of the University of Virginia is an offering of the University, which consists of a lecture given by the President and a baccalaureate ceremony in which students receive their degrees. Because of the wide range of subjects to be discussed, the lecture will be of great interest to students of all fields of study. The lecture will be open to the public.

In his plans made to the Hollins Student Union, President Professor Bledsoe stated that the forum would be open to all students, faculty, and staff members of the University. He also stated that the forum would be open to the public.

Music Notes
Peacemaker

Mr. H. John Holliiters

Mr. John Holliiters

Allan M. Dingle

MRS. REESE

DOROTHY

PEARCE, 38

EMORY, 39

WINNIE GLOVER

SPEAKS

EMORY, 39

Mr. John Holliiters

He is expected to return to the campus on Monday.

Dr. Parmenter Addresses
Humanities Division

The faculty and students of the Humanities Division heard Dr. Morris P.
Parmenter address the division on February 21. The topic of the talk was "The Role of the Artistic Expression in the World of Today."

Mr. Keller's contribution to the conversation was that of the dramatic expression in the world of today. He believed that the artistic expression is important in the world of today, and that it is necessary for people to understand the role of the artistic expression in the world of today.

Henry Manly

This is an announcement for all members of the drama department who wish to participate in the production of "A Night in the City" on February 22 at 8:00 p.m. in the Bradley Hall Auditorium.

A Keller Athlete Speaks

Keller is a very energetic student who enjoys everything that he does. He is a hard worker and always considers his fellow students.

He is interested in all sports and activities, and he is always ready to help others.

The Keller's contribution to the conversation was that of the dramatic expression in the world of today. He believed that the artistic expression is important in the world of today, and that it is necessary for people to understand the role of the artistic expression in the world of today.
Chronicle in Black and White

Charles Lewis Cocke, founder of Hollins College, was a man of many talents. He believed that education is the means by which one can better the world. The following is an extract from a letter written by Charles Lewis Cocke, discussing the founding of Hollins College:

"For me it is a source of pride to know that I contributed to the establishment of Hollins College. I am grateful for the opportunity to have been a part of this institution, and I encourage all who have the chance to support it."

How Founder's Day Began

Thirty-five years ago, Hollins celebrated its founder's birthday with a special event. The tradition continued until 1992, when Dr. Mary C. K. Williams took over as president of the college.

Senior Prospects Their Last Fall's Day

"I am happy to know that I will be attending Hollins College this fall. I am excited to be a part of this wonderful institution and to contribute to its growth.

Make Your Headquarters at Our Store when in Roanoke

FORTY YEARS OF DEFENDABLE SERVICE

ROYAL FUR SHOP

College Printing

Lagarus

Hotel Patrick Henry

"The Morning Place of Tomorrow"

ROYAL FUR SHOP

FOURTY YEARS OF DEFENDABLE SERVICE

College Printing

Lagarus

Hotel Patrick Henry

"The Morning Place of Tomorrow"

FOURTY YEARS OF DEFENDABLE SERVICE

ROYAL FUR SHOP

College Printing

Lagarus

Hotel Patrick Henry

"The Morning Place of Tomorrow"

FOURTY YEARS OF DEFENDABLE SERVICE

ROYAL FUR SHOP

College Printing

Lagarus

Hotel Patrick Henry

"The Morning Place of Tomorrow"

FOURTY YEARS OF DEFENDABLE SERVICE

ROYAL FUR SHOP

College Printing

Lagarus

Hotel Patrick Henry

"The Morning Place of Tomorrow"

FOURTY YEARS OF DEFENDABLE SERVICE

ROYAL FUR SHOP

College Printing

Lagarus

Hotel Patrick Henry

"The Morning Place of Tomorrow"

FOURTY YEARS OF DEFENDABLE SERVICE

ROYAL FUR SHOP

College Printing

Lagarus

Hotel Patrick Henry

"The Morning Place of Tomorrow"

FOURTY YEARS OF DEFENDABLE SERVICE

ROYAL FUR SHOP

College Printing

Lagarus

Hotel Patrick Henry

"The Morning Place of Tomorrow"

FOURTY YEARS OF DEFENDABLE SERVICE

ROYAL FUR SHOP

College Printing

Lagarus

Hotel Patrick Henry

"The Morning Place of Tomorrow"

FOURTY YEARS OF DEFENDABLE SERVICE

ROYAL FUR SHOP

College Printing

Lagarus

Hotel Patrick Henry

"The Morning Place of Tomorrow"

FOURTY YEARS OF DEFENDABLE SERVICE

ROYAL FUR SHOP
ALUMNE NEWS

RUTH CRAYFORD REEVES '13
Executive Secretary 107-108 Chapel

Emma Thom, '94, Washington, D. C. Miss Thom is one of the three alumni members of the Board of Trustees. She is a member of the United States Government Board of Education's Library.

Anna Campbell, '07, New Brunswick, New Jersey. Miss Campbell is president of the Alumnae Advisory Council, and will preside over the sessions in Presser Hall on Saturday and Sunday. She is Professor of History at the New Jersey College for Women, and a Fellow of the British Historical Society.

Isabel Hancock, '27, Andover, Massachusetts. Miss Hancock is President of the Hollins College Alumnae Association. She will preside over the mid-winter meeting of the Board of Directors which takes place Saturday evening. Miss Hancock is teaching Mathematics at Abbott Academy.

Sarah Middleton, '27, Louisville, Kentucky. Miss Middleton is a past president of the Alumnae Association, and is a member of the Board of Directors. She teaches in the Louisville Junior High School, Louisville, Kentucky.

Janet Stirling, '32, Wilmington, Delaware. Miss Stirling is Vice President of the Alumnae Association, and permanent chairman of the Centennial Committee.

Rosamund Larmour, '33, Norfolk, Virginia. Miss Larmour is coming to be the alumnae speaker at the Founder's Day dinner which takes place Saturday evening. Miss Larmour is President of High School, Norfolk, Virginia.

Other alumnae expected for the weekend are: Alice Lincoln Anderson, '11, Marion, Virginia; May Bush, '23, Greensboro, North Carolina; Betty Raymond Bogher, ex-'11, Merchantsville, New Jersey; Jean Bird, '36, Radford, Virginia; Josephine Buchanan, '13, Marion, Virginia; Martha Carlisle, '36, Johnson City, Tennessee; Mrs. Miles Crupper, '07, Marion, Virginia; Peg Clark, '36, Felling, Long Island; Mary Creech, '32, Winston-Salem, North Carolina; Dorothy Qualls Dick, '30, Chesterstown, Maryland; Lucy Duk, '92, Richmond, Virginia; Betty Jane Winslow Garrett, '99, Blacksburg, Virginia; Sara Gilliam, '34, Lynchburg, Virginia; Lucille Samsell Hall, '31, Marion, Virginia; Jane Moss Goodwin, '34, Clifton Forge, Virginia; Marion Hamilton, '35, Glen Ridge, New Jersey; Dorothy Huyett, '33, Washington, D. C.; Harriet Ann Jackson, '36, Cambridge, Massachusetts; Mary Hinton Duke Kerr, '28, Richmond, Virginia; Catherine Gallaway Lewis, '29, Augusta, Georgia; Kathryn Lavinder, '36, Bristol, Virginia; Jane Offutt Long, '32, Richmond, Virginia; and many others, too numerous to mention.

Prospective Late Dates

Ignore Fire Drill
A girl at Blackbushe last week-end was heard over three or four drunks, at about 2:30 a.m., trying to bribe the desk clerk at a hotel to ring the fire alarm because they were afraid the building would catch fire. They were afraid the building would catch fire, but they didn't succeed; they were afraid that if they did, they couldn't get out of the hotel.

Dry Cleaning Ottawa Will Like
A girl at Blackbushe last week-end was heard over three or four drunks, at about 2:30 a.m., trying to bribe the desk clerk at a hotel to ring the fire alarm because they were afraid the building would catch fire. They were afraid the building would catch fire, but they didn't succeed; they were afraid that if they did, they couldn't get out of the hotel.

Hermann's

SILK STREET

THE WINTER-WEAR MODES

MADE IN N. Y.

FREE PICK-UP AND DELIVERY

THE MEIRINGEN

TWENTY-THIRD W. CHURCH AVE.

Roanoke, Virginia

Hollins Students May Smoke Here

WELCOME!

Tinker Tea House

Martha Washington

Hollins student Life, February 20, 1937, Hollins College, Virginia