Bonny

Dear Ann,

I just read about Ann B. Hopkins in The New York Times Magazine.
As I read about her
and looked at her picture I became sure that I was the Ann Hopkins I know
at Hollins College
1961-65. I am
curious if it is you.

If it is — have
and good luck.

Even though we did not know each other closely, you were always someone ^{with} whom I felt common bonds politically both on campus and off (civil rights, etc.) —

Briefly — I live
in Gloucester, Mass,
have two sons 16 & 13,
have been divorced
and re-married, have a private practice in families therapy and am getting older.

I haven't been back to Hollins but plan
to do this in 1982
for 25th reunion.

If you are not the Ann Hopkins I
read about, let me
know what you are doing. Perhaps see you in the future.
Sincerely,

Sandy Ludlum
