

Hollins University

Hollins Digital Commons

Ann B. Hopkins Papers

Manuscript Collections

5-15-1990

Letter from Lorie Spencer to Ann Hopkins, May 15, 1990

Lorie Spencer

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.hollins.edu/hopkins-papers>

Mrs. F. A. Spencer
1028 Kingston Rd.
Princeton, NJ 08540

Ms. Ann D. Hopkins
2134 Cathedral Ave. N.W.
Washington, D. C. 20008

Tuesday Noon
May 15, 1990

Dear Ann,

You know Rachel Keynton and I must think a lot of you and be proud of you for us (at our ages) to call in the middle of the day long distance!

Just a few minutes ago Rachel called to tell me you made the front page of The Washington Post and that you had won. Hooray for Judge Gezell. I went right to the typewriter to write you a note only to find I did not have your address so I called her right back.

That's a long opening to a Congratulatory Note! I'm so proud of you, and I know your Mother is too. She might not admit it, but I know deep down she is so "keep a'going" as my Mother used to say to us when we accomplished something.

I am leaving Thursday for Germany and Switzerland. When I return, I hope to come to D. C. Rachel and I have already talked about that. I think she is as proud of you as I am.

Love,

Louis