Executive Council Aims for Closer Cooperation

At the beginning of each year, it is the custom of the Executive Council to discuss and decide upon the policies it will follow in the work of the ensuing year. The purpose of this report on the Council's policies serves chiefly to clarify each member's ideas into a unit, and to act as a guide to the problems which present themselves. They are in no sense to be considered final as stated.

The policy of the 1939-40 Executive Council has been formulated with the three following tenets in mind—First: The integration of the three groups on campus—students, faculty and administration. As the intermediary body, Council hopes to promote a closer, more cooperative relationship between these three groups. This should result in a feeling of shared responsibility and cooperation which will be beneficial to Hollins.

Second: Increased efficiency of organizations on campus. To achieve this aim, it was decided that the heads of all organizations should meet monthly with the president of Student Government to discuss conditions of the organization. Third: Improvement of the present election system.

In addition to these main tenets, the Council further includes in its policy the following: (1) Joint meetings of the Executive Council and the Judicial Board to discuss the Honor System. (2) Increased publicity of Student Government activities through STUDENT LIFE. (3) The maintenance of such committees as Council deems necessary.

Ass't Attorney General Arnold to Speak Soon

Assistant Attorney General of the United States T. Reesor Arnold and his wife, a former Hollins student, will be on campus December 2. Mr. Arnold will speak at convocation on the subject of the anti-trust laws. Many off-campus guests are expected to attend this convocation, including members of the Roanoke Buyers Association and the law faculties of many neighboring colleges.

Mr. Arnold holds an A.B. degree from Princeton, an L.L. B. from Harvard, and an M.A. from Yale. He was admitted to the bar in 1914 but gave up actual practice to become a professor of law, and he has taught at the University of Wyoming, the University of Virginia and Yale at different times. He has served on many United States commissions and his legal advice has aided many other committees.

The assistant attorney general has written three books and many articles for various magazines. Since March 7, 1938, Mr. Arnold has held the office of Asst. Attorney General.

Mrs. Arnold, who was, before her marriage, Frances Longan, was a student at Hollins for two years, ex-1910. At that time she served on the Quarterly staff and was a member of the Delta Tau Beta sorority. She and Mr. Arnold have visited Hollins several times.

Hollins Wins at Press Convention

Hollins STUDENT LIFE was awarded the first prize among Class B papers at the Twelfth Annual Conference of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association, held in Washington on November 10 and 11. Sarah Graydon, '41, was elected second vice president of the Association for next year. Those from the editorial staff of STUDENT LIFE attended, Alice Porter, Caroline McChesney and Lisa Lindsey. Frances McCallion represented the Spectator. The yearbook was not entered this year, Cargoes and the paper being Hollins' only entries.

Class B papers included those published bi-weekly or less frequently. College Topics, publication of the University of Virginia, won first prize in Class A. This class included those papers published weekly or more frequently. Over forty publications were entered and more than eighty delegates attended the convention. Next year the V. I. P. A. will meet in Blacksburg.

Thanksgiving

Chapel services will be held tomorrow morning at 9:00, Rev. Roland Menzner, Episcopal minister, from Salem, will conduct the services. Attendance is compulsory for all students on campus at the time.

The annual Thanksgiving dinner in the college dining room will be at 3:30 P. M. Students will dress for this occasion.

Rev. Scherer Comes as Fall "Y" Speaker

The V. W. C. A. brings the Rev. Paul Ehrman Scherer to campus on Sunday, November 26, and Monday, November 27, as its fall speaker. At the present time, Rev. Scherer is pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Holy Trinity, which is located on Central Park West, at 66th Street.

Born at Mount Holy Springs, Pa., on June 22, 1892, Rev. Scherer received his B. A. at the College of Charlestown, in South Carolina. It was here, too, that he received his M. A. and was major in none. He was awarded his B. D. from the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Philadelphia; his Litt. D. from Wittenberg College and in 1916 he was ordained into the ministry of the Lutheran Church. Then in 1918, he became assistant pastor to the Holy Trinity Church in Buffalo, N. Y.

Rev. Scherer has spoken various times over the radio and has preached at Rhode Island State, Vassar, William and Mary, and Hamilton Colleges. Here at Hollins Sunday night, November 26, he will preach in chapel, and on Monday, November 27, he will speak at eleven o'clock and seven o'clock.

Odds, Evens Poise for Battle, Hodges, Cauble Lead Elevens, Today Marks Nineteenth Meet

Even Odd

Line-Ups

Tentative line-ups for the Odd-Even battle:

Even Squad

Odd Squad

Grady ....................... G. W. P. Martin
Palmer ...................... E. C. Cauble (c)
Hodges (c) ............... C. Blackburn
Rohner ..................... M. Shirley
Rose ...................... H. Thomas
Dowd ...................... L. Smith
Sicard ..................... C. B. Bath
Gale ...................... Zora
A. Hall ..................... V. Martin
J. Jones ..................... R. Bergin
Farley ..................... R. Counts
Even Subs—Sivan, Fundbouer, Daniel, Redfield, Roethke
Odd Subs—Welsh, Lockwood, Montgomery, McKee, Robbins

Rev. Scherer's ideas into a unit, and to act as a guide to the problems which present themselves. They are in no sense to be considered final as stated.

The policy of the 1939-40 Executive Council has been formulated with the three following tenets in mind—First: The integration of the three groups on campus—students, faculty and administration. As the intermediary body, Council hopes to promote a closer, more cooperative relationship between these three groups. This should result in a feeling of shared responsibility and cooperation which will be beneficial to Hollins.

Second: Increased efficiency of organizations on campus. To achieve this aim, it was decided that the heads of all organizations should meet monthly with the president of Student Government to discuss conditions of the organization. Third: Improvement of the present election system.

In addition to these main tenets, the Council further includes in its policy the following: (1) Joint meetings of the Executive Council and the Judicial Board to discuss the Honor System. (2) Increased publicity of Student Government activities through STUDENT LIFE. (3) The maintenance of such committees as Council deems necessary.

The assistant attorney general has written three books and many articles for various magazines. Since March 7, 1938, Mr. Arnold has held the office of Asst. Attorney General.

Mrs. Arnold, who was, before her marriage, Frances Longan, was a student at Hollins for two years, ex-1910. At that time she served on the Quarterly staff and was a member of the Delta Tau Beta sorority. She and Mr. Arnold have visited Hollins several times.

Hollins Student Life was awarded the first prize among Class B papers at the Twelfth Annual Conference of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association, held in Washington on November 10 and 11.

Sarah Graydon, '41, was elected second vice president of the Association for next year. Those from the editorial staff of STUDENT LIFE attended, Alice Porter, Caroline McChesney and Lisa Lindsey. Frances McCallion represented the Spectator. The yearbook was not entered this year, Cargoes and the paper being Hollins' only entries.

Class B papers included those published bi-weekly or less frequently. College Topics, publication of the University of Virginia, won first prize in Class A. This class included those papers published weekly or more frequently. Over forty publications were entered and more than eighty delegates attended the convention. Next year the V. I. P. A. will meet in Blacksburg.

The assistant attorney general has written three books and many articles for various magazines. Since March 7, 1938, Mr. Arnold has held the office of Asst. Attorney General.

Mrs. Arnold, who was, before her marriage, Frances Longan, was a student at Hollins for two years, ex-1910. At that time she served on the Quarterly staff and was a member of the Delta Tau Beta sorority. She and Mr. Arnold have visited Hollins several times.

Hollins Wins at Press Convention

Hollins STUDENT LIFE was awarded the first prize among Class B papers at the Twelfth Annual Conference of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association, held in Washington on November 10 and 11. Sarah Graydon, '41, was elected second vice president of the Association for next year. Those from the editorial staff of STUDENT LIFE attended, Alice Porter, Caroline McChesney and Lisa Lindsey. Frances McCallion represented the Spectator. The yearbook was not entered this year, Cargoes and the paper being Hollins' only entries.

Class B papers included those published bi-weekly or less frequently. College Topics, publication of the University of Virginia, won first prize in Class A. This class included those papers published weekly or more frequently. Over forty publications were entered and more than eighty delegates attended the convention. Next year the V. I. P. A. will meet in Blacksburg.

Rev. Scherer Comes as Fall "Y" Speaker

The V. W. C. A. brings the Rev. Paul Ehrman Scherer to campus on Sunday, November 26, and Monday, November 27, as its fall speaker. At the present time, Rev. Scherer is pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Holy Trinity, which is located on Central Park West, at 66th Street.

Born at Mount Holy Springs, Pa., on June 22, 1892, Rev. Scherer received his B. A. at the College of Charlestown, in South Carolina. It was here, too, that he received his M. A. and was major in none. He was awarded his B. D. from the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Philadelphia; his Litt. D. from Wittenberg College and in 1916 he was ordained into the ministry of the Lutheran Church. Then in 1918, he became assistant pastor to the Holy Trinity Church in Buffalo, N. Y.

Rev. Scherer has spoken various times over the radio and has preached at Rhode Island State, Vassar, William and Mary, and Hamilton Colleges. Here at Hollins Sunday night, November 26, he will preach in chapel, and on Monday, November 27, he will speak at eleven o'clock and seven o'clock.

Odds, Evens Poise for Battle, Hodges, Cauble Lead Elevens, Today Marks Nineteenth Meet

Even Odd

Line-Ups

Tentative line-ups for the Odd-Even battle:

Even Squad

Odd Squad

Grady ....................... G. W. P. Martin
Palmer ...................... E. C. Cauble (c)
Hodges (c) ............... C. Blackburn
Rohner ..................... M. Shirley
Rose ...................... H. Thomas
Dowd ...................... L. Smith
Sicard ..................... C. B. Bath
Gale ...................... Zora
A. Hall ..................... V. Martin
J. Jones ..................... R. Bergin
Farley ..................... R. Counts
Even Subs—Sivan, Fundbouer, Daniel, Redfield, Roethke
Odd Subs—Welsh, Lockwood, Montgomery, McKee, Robbins

Bobbie Scanlan Wins Cargoes Prize

The first issue of the 1939-40 Cargoes made its appearance Monday. Under the editorship of Sarah Gresham and Shirley Henn, the magazine presents a variety of material including fiction by Nancy Gresham and Caroline Taylor, poetry by Shirley Henn and Nancy Gresham, essays from Audrey Ransett, Shirley Henn and Nancy Gresham, and reviews of "Concrete and Christmas Holiday" by Ann Brinkley and Betty Smith.

The cover was done by Emily Campbell, the sketches inside the magazine by Margaret Cooper. This issue of Cargoes featured the freshman contest in which Bobbie Scanlan won first prize. Her contribution was "War is a Glorious Thing," a short story.

The public reading was announced by Ann Riggs and Susan Johnson for their essays.
The editorial staff must take serious notice in the fact that: (1) Only signed articles are published, even with the exception of the political departments. The author must either be a member of the staff or he will not be published; (2) the staff reserves the right to edit, hold or cancel any article which is not reasonable for public and (3) the staff does not assume responsibility for opinions expressed in other columns.

ALUMNAE NEWS

ALUMNIA Publications

"The Life and Death of Emily Bronte," a one-act play written by Bronte, was performed at the Jefferson Memorial. The performance was directed by Bronte and attended by the majority of the alumnae.

S. GALELLI OPTICAL COMPANY

Medical Art Exhibiting

SAMUEL SPiegel

Incorporated

Facilities in: -

THERMAN & BONNE Co.

"The Smith's Largest and Prettiest Christmas Branch"
I can't stand it if the Odd-Even hockey game doesn't hurry up and come, and neither can anyone else. Enthusiastic rivalry has been running wild all over the place. Gym lockers, riding rings, lecture rooms, Keller, Choral Club, I. R. C., no matter where or what the occasion, the big question is ... Who is going to be the victor in this traditional hard-fought fray? Some say it's just a matter of personal opinion, whereas others claim the answer quite obvious.

What do they think? What do you think? What do I think? A sample of Hollins opinion is calling. Introducing, therefore, the Census of Prejudice and Other Miscellaneous Thoughts Concerning the Odd-Even Hockey Game of Wednesday, November 22, 1939 (with comments):

Miss Shaver: Says she's for the Odds, since she's been an odd from way back... explanation... had been in an odd class when undergoing the process of education and came to Hollins in an odd year—logical conclusion... she is an Odd.

Mr. Dowell: Unoubtedly in the call box with Miss Shaver, he claims to be an Odd, too. "Why naturally," he says (oh, say not so). Miss Sheder: "Evans, of course, shouts this boy lady with assurance and plenty of common sense.

Miss Jackson: Likes even things a lot better than odd (good taste). Miss Jackson: Evidently thinks the Odds have it all over the Evens (simply can't understand his point of view).

Mrs. Slatton: She's strong for the Evens... must be close harmony in the P. O.3.

MRS. DOUTHAT: for the 3's. She says she's for the Evens (yes, I said rumor), we've got to the well known (and placement, I imagine), and then, too, doesn't any kind of a saddle look good... Yes, you guessed it, I'm off for a hike to the well known (and I do mean) Tea House...