Dear Ann,

Jim told me that he had dinner with you after we had learned of Peter's death through a client who apparently knows Dr. Wayne Calloway. I want to let you know how profoundly sorry I am about this. As a parent, I cannot imagine anything worse or harder to accept. Amy and I now live in your neighborhood, and if there is anything that we can do to help out at all, please tell me.

I wish you peace.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Doug", written in black ink.
