Hollins Columns (1941 Oct 31)

Hollins College
The Dramatic Board has chosen the all-play, The Joyous Season. Scheduled to be presented on November 29, The Joyous Season is a delightful story of a man who comes home for Christmas after an absence of twelve years. It tells of her brothers' and sisters' resentment of the young men and how she changes their lives.

Tryouts are to be held the week of November 2 and all interested and eligible girls are urged to tryout. Copies of the play will be placed in the Library to enable people to read it before coming to tryouts.

Since the Freshmen are not eligible for a play the first semester, the system of "Freshman One-acts" was begun. Directed by the chairman of the play production class, there can be only eight rehearsals of one hour each from four to six in the afternoon. Given on November 15 this year, the plays are to be: The Flying Wife, The Happy Journey, Enter Her and The Medicine Show. For those freshmen who do not desire to be in the play, there is back-stage work to be done.

Stunts to Feature Stupendous Pizazz

The long awaited Senior Stunts, which are all-play—since every one knows—are to be Saturday, November 1, in the Little Theatre at 8:30 P. M. According to tradition (you freshmen have, no doubt, heard that Hollins has a few), the stunts have always been kept a deep secret but this year the seniors have decided to give a little slip.

Of course, this is quite confidential and you don't need to tell a soul.

Now, in order to keep it from being extemely, they have planned to have a little pizzazz, since it is commonly known that this stunt always adds vim, vigor and verve. The acting throughout has been as good as the acting any other year, but with the cold weather, the audience are about discouraged by the cold. We're continuously grilling and sweating that every one is above par.

From then on everything is marvelous, stupendous and pizazz—but, careful, there, they will tell you everything—we'll just add a P. S., for there is one more thing we can't possibly keep to ourselves, that pizzazz, which will be the most spectacular event of the evening. Furthermore, a little birdie told us that lots of grills and grills will be had by all. So, all of you who, by some chance don't understand the be above, be sure to come to play Saturday and see for yourselves these stunt, quick and trivials Senior Stunts!

Fallen Pearl

On October 21, at 7:30 P. M., in the backroom stage of the Little Theatre, there was a meeting of those students and members of the faculty who are interested in trying out for the Red Cross.

Miss Parmenter, as chairman of the Red Cross sewing committee, assisted by Mary Lewis Mills and Virginia Wood, gave out material and instructions for hand sewing. At the same time the chairman of the Red Cross knitting committee, Miss Myrtle, and her assistants, Martha Bowman, Nancy Washington and Louie Campbell gave knitting instructions and distributed wool for children's sweaters to all those interested in this work.

It has been announced on the bulletin board that Miss Parmenter will be in the Red Cross sewing room backstage of the Little Theatre on Wednesday afternoons from 1 until 5 P. M., and on Thursday afternoons from 2 to 4 P. M. in order to direct work done on the sewing machine and to give out or receive sewing which students may do in their rooms. Moreover, it is the wish of the director that any machine operators may come on any morning from 8 to 11 A. M. and all day Saturday.

At present all available wool and sewing supplies have been distributed, but the Red Cross will have more of these supplies when their next assignment comes from headquarters in December.

Dr. Wyatt Smart Speaks for Y. W.

The first speaker to be brought to our campus this year by the Y. W. C. A. will be the Reverend Dr. Wyatt Aiken Smart from Emory University, near Atlanta, Georgia. Dr. Smart is scheduled to arrive Sunday, November 3d, and as his first address he will hold the regular Sunday night chapel service. The following morning, November 4th, at 11:00 A. M., he will deliver his main address to the whole student body and faculty in the Little Theatre. Then that afternoon, at 7:00 p. m., his final speech will be given.

Dr. Smart is a well known clergymen and educator in the South. Born in Newberry, S. C., October 22, 1883, he received his B. A. at Vanderbilt in 1904; his B. D. at Union Theological Seminary in 1907; and he was ordained by the Episcopal Church, South. Later he did special work at the University of Chicago and received his D. D. in 1910 from Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas, and from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1930.

He also served as pastor of the Trinity Church, Lynchburg, Virginia, from 1907 to 1909; of the Park View Church, Portsmout, Virginia, from 1909 to 1913; and of the First Church, Charlotteville, Virginia, in 1914 and 1916.

Since 1914 he has held his present position as Professor of Bible and Theology in Emory University. At present he is a member of the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis.

Coltition Club Plans Gala Hop

The Fall Fremmen Cotillon will be held on Friday, October 31st, from 4:00 p. m. to 6:00 hour, at which time supper will be served. This Cotillon is given for the fremmen club to get the seniors and juniors out and to bring fresmen closer. The theme of the dance will be Halloween, and the Decoration Committee, consisting of Paula White, Baird McCreary, and Rinky McCurdy, plans to have cornstalks, pumpkins, horns, black cats and witches to carry out the theme. The orchestra which has been engaged is the same one the sophomores had for the fresmen dance—this is the first time Cotillon has ever had a whole orchestra. There will be corphones for the dates, a dance contest and then supper will be served in Keller.

The president of Cotillon is Cynthia Collins, and the secretary is Susan Johnston. This year Cotillon has taken in seventeen new members: Jane Cutting, Noe Davis, Wanda Dorr, Ann Neal Cole, Annie Reeves, Ann Noland, Jane Cutting, Janef Davis, Wanda Dorr, Ann Neal Cole, Annie Reeves, and Mrs. James met with the Cotillon Club.

At present all required and necessary materials for the Cotillon have been received, and it is hoped that they will be started as soon as possible.

THEREIFIC FEELING

One of the things that makes Hollins the great place that it is the feeling of fellowship and comradeship which exists between the faculty and the administration and the students on the one side and the students on the other. This was brought home to me on Taylor Day when we noticed one of the students walking and the other students towards the faculty. Some of them were in a group and some were alone. This was the way they walk in the streets of Moscow and in the streets of St. Petersburg. It is a feeling of being united, of being part of a whole.

DUE TO A SLIGHT MISUNDERSTANDING

We at Hollins are very happy to have the opportunity to work with this new student. It is an integral part of our life. We are very glad that they are here. We are happy to have them under the table and sitting next to us from the other groups. They are in our college and we are glad that they are here. We are glad that they are part of our community.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE

The public service is an important part of our daily lives. It is a way for us to give back to the community. It is a way for us to be part of something bigger than ourselves. It is a way for us to make a difference in the lives of others.

THE MEDITERRANEAN

It appears to the Italians that the British are trying to diminish the size of their country. This is a very serious territorial matter by pressuring for another battle in the Aegean. Several times in the past few days, British planes have dropped bombs on Naples. The planes are believed to have been flown from the British base in Malta, some 300 miles away. Some of the bombs have landed near the city. British tanks and other military vehicles are believed to be in those attacks, and that British tanks and other military vehicles are being supplied to the Allies in the area.

LABOR

According to the Gallup poll of public opinion, labor unions methods are growing more and more popular in Europe. Every man has his own job, and if he is not content with it, he can have another one. The British government has recommended that the workers should work for more than four weeks, but not more than six. Congress may consider some restrictive labor legislation soon.

VOCATION CHOICES REVEAL INTERESTS HELD BY STUDENTS

Recently, Hollins students were asked to select the vocation which they would follow after graduation. Numerous work was done to determine the interests of students. The results were as follows: 33% planned to follow the arts, 20% to follow engineering, 17% to follow law, 15% to follow business, 13% to follow education, and 9% to follow science.

On the Fence

The young women of today are faced with as serious a problem as any that their ancestors were called upon to solve. True, they aren't asked to follow their men into wildernesses inhabited by war-wrapping, scalping, painted Indians; true, they don't have to stand staunchly, pro-testing slaves, horses and family silver from the ruthless Yankees, but they do have to decide about marriage and the draft. Shall they marry now or wait? Some Hollins students seem, however, to have already reached a decision.

Pro . . .

May Hill Orleans, '44
I think you ought to get him while you can, even if he's flatfooted, cross-eyed and bald.

Betty Gelback, '44
They may be marrying right and left, and some of them will probably break up soon, but it does give some girls a chance to get married when ordinarily they would have to wait for a year or so.

Ann Reynolds, '42
I just want to get married.

Jack Gravens, '43
It is speeding up the marriage rate and, if people don't get married now, there certainly will be a lot of spinster in this world.

Murray Barnes, '45
I'm in favor of marriage.

Con . . .

Sue Johnson, '43
I think that it is stupid the way everybody is getting married. They'll be sorry.

Lucie Bush, '43
I think that it is a foolish idea to marry to avoid the draft. Why can't people wait till times are more stable? It would be so much more intelligent.

Emily Andrews, '42
I don't see how anyone hopes to get along on $21 a month.

Gert Cooper, '45
I like marriage, I like men, but the draft—ouch!

It isn't hard to see which side Hollins girls fall on—a very domestic group.

Free Speech

Dear Editor:

I think we have a fine library and I think that the librarians do everything possible to help aid the students. However, I think the individual students do nothing but hinder their fellow students in the library.

Perhaps you realize by now that I am speaking about the noise. A certain amount of whispering is probably necessary to get assignments and find out little bits of information about your work but constant whispering hour in and hour out is absolutely unnecessary.

I am speaking about two types of students, those who come to discuss their private life and those who come to work together on some project. The first type could go to the Tea House and probably get more enjoyment out of their personal affairs. As for the group that comes to work jointly, maybe to compare their history maps, there is nothing to prevent them from going to one of the basement rooms and sparing us all.
